

Self start clinic opens at Y Feb. 14

Enrollment is open for the annual YWCA "Self Start" clinic to be held at Northwest Branch YWCA, 2640 Grand River, Redford Township, beginning Monday, Feb. 14.

The clinic, which meets for three consecutive weeks is held 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and is geared for the woman who is interested in work or volunteer opportunities outside of the home.

Since many women who are re-entering the labor market feel "out of touch" with job opportunities and application procedures, the clinic is designed to build up their confidence, as well as make information available regarding job opportunities.

Businesswomen to hear Flannery

Pat Flannery of the Southfield city clerk's staff will speak on voter recruitment following the dinner meeting of the Oak branch chapter charter of the American Business Women's Association, scheduled Tuesday in Stouffer Northland Inn, Southfield.

A social hour will begin at 6 p.m. and dinner will be served an hour later.

Carroll is new SA commander

Lt. Col. Raymond Carroll is the new divisional commander of the Eastern Michigan Division of the Salvation Army.

He will direct Salvation Army programs throughout the eastern half of Michigan from Cheboygan to Adrian.

Formal installation of colonel and Mrs. Carroll as divisional commanders will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 10 at 601 Bagley Avenue, Detroit. The public is invited.

Raymond Carroll, born in Canada, spent most of his developing years in southeastern Michigan, where his father held Salvation Army appointments.

After being commissioned as a Salvation Army officer in 1942, Lt. Carroll had appointments in Royal Oak, Saginaw and Midland. While in Midland he married Salvation Army officer Betty Swanson, a Chicagoan, and they have held several appointments in this division.

Since 1954, the colonel has held administrative divisional appointments in Minnesota, Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Des Moines, Peoria and Kansas City.

Speakers and resource people during the three-week seminar will include Norah Martin, management consultant; Jerry Maynard, Mardi Wright and Toni Meyer, representing VBA Enterprises; Nadia Cesare, assistant manager of GM Building branch of National Bank of Detroit; Mary Ann Burn, sales representative of Manpower; Fred Price, Permanent Staff Company; Janice Snyder, employment specialist, Detroit College of Business; Sylvia Katz, admissions, Oakland Community College; Barb White, employment counselor, Henry Ford Hospital; Jo Gualtiere, counselor from Wayne State University; Kathleen Manske, personnel management specialist, Michigan Department of Civil Service, and Betty Wagner, Betty King and Peggy Rice, from Schoolcraft College Women's Resource Center.

The program begins at 9:30 a.m. and adjourns at 2:30 p.m. with a luncheon break. Participants may bring their own lunch or buy a hot sandwich at the YW. There is a drop-in nursery available for pre-schoolers at a nominal fee.

YWCA membership is not required for the clinic, but a registration fee of $3 is required to enroll. Advance registration is necessary and due to the popularity of the program, immediate response is advisable.

Further information may be acquired by calling the YWCA at KE 7-8800. The YWCA is a Torch Drive agency.

Fun with math offered students

Top high school mathematicians from the metropolitan area will participate Saturday in the sixth annual "Myriad of Mathematical Merriment," sponsored by the Detroit Area Council of Math Teachers and the University of Detroit.

Fun aspects of math and computer demonstrations will be featured in the day-long conference on the U-D main campus, Livernois at McNichols.
