CHATHAM'S HIGH STANDARDS MEAN FRESHER, MORE TENDER MEATS.

CFC members learn that Chatham handles only USDA "choice" beef.

Beef gets fast handling to assure 24-hour in-store delivery.

Fat and excess bone are trimmed off by experts.

Rigid sanitation assures wholesome, fresher meat for you.

Ever wonder why Chatham meat quality is consistently high? Your Consumer Food Council discovered the reasons. Chatham has the newest, most modern meat processing plant in Michigan where the highest standards are maintained.

All Chatham beef is corn-fed for flavor and tenderness, and it is all "choice" grade, rigidly inspected by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. No wonder Chatham sells more meat per store than any other supermarket chain in Detroit.

If you would like to join a group tour of the Chatham meat processing plant, write: Bobby Kelly, Chatham Complete Food Centers, 2300 E. Ten Mile Road, Warren, Michigan 48091.
