"Everyone had a good time," said Bunny Leitch, one of the lournament directors. "We ran seven tournaments including consolation rounds), so everyone had a lot of playing time. We were blessed with good weather for spectators to watch as well as for the participants to enjoy playing, and everything went on schedule."

TEMPERATURES reached into the 40s for the platform tennis tournament, a sport which is played outside on a raised wooden platform. The court is laid out like a tennis court, but is one-fourth the size.

A solid rubber ball is played off a tight wire fence surrounding the court, using a wooden paddle with holes in it. The sport developed from paddle tennis.

Detroit's Tribuno was the fifth and inal women's professional platform final women's professional platform tennis tournament sponsored by Tri-buno Wines. Gengler of Locust Valley, N.Y., and Hilton of Pacific Palisades. Calif., have won all five in addition to the New York State championships. "Our toughest match of the tournament," Gengler said, "was our first match. We beat Jane Fleming and Barbara Young 6-7, 6-3 and 6-4. It was the only set we lost in the tourna-

Hillary Hilton has played tennis and paddle tennis. She was the National Amateur Public Parks tennis champion in 1978 and is a commentator for ABC Sport's Superstars. This is her first year of fulltime platform tennis competition.

"I LIKE THE dimensions of other sports in platform tennis," Hilton said. "It has the stroke work of 'tennis, the screen play of squash or racquetball and the timing and dexterity required in paddle tennis California style.

Southfield rips Berkley, 61-51

By TOM BAER

To Southfield coach Don Kaump, any season in which his Blue Jay bas-ketball team can beat Berkley High twice in one season is almost auto-matically a success.

And Southfield completed the sweep with a 61-51 victory over Berkley last Friday night in a Southeastern Mich-

Southfield hadn't turned that trick since before the days when coach Steve Rhoads' Berkley teams were winning SMA basketball titles with players like Bob Pyykkonen and Bruce Flowers. That was roughly 1972-75.

"But before that, Berkley never beat us," said Kaump with a laugh, enjoying his team's present lofty status in the SMA. Last Friday's victory lifted Southfield to 7-0 in the league and 13-3 overall.

Southfield has a good chance to win the title if it can beat Royal Oak Kim-ball on Feb. 22 and Ferndale High on Feb. 25. Southfield hasn't won an SMA basketball title since the 1970-71 season.

In last Friday's game at Berkley.
Southfield mared to a 19-6 lead after the opening quarter, and maintained a 12-point (31-19) haltitime lead. Berkley staged a comeback in the third quarter, outscoring Southfield, 17-8. Berkley pulled to within two points (37-36) with about two minutes left in the third quarter.

with about two minutes left in the third quarter.

BUT, SOUTHFIELD, with Jeff McCall leading the way, surged for 22 points in the final quarter while holding Berkley to 15. McCall. Southfield's tallest man at 6-feet.4, scored 12 of his game-high 22 points in the last quarter. He also pulled down 12 rebounds to help Southfield's hold a 31-30 control of the property of the points of the points

Christian cagers down Cranbrook

Southfield Christian turned back a late Cranbrook rally to post a $7-51 non-league victory. Feb. 11 in Bloomfield Hills.

"They're one of the better teams we've played all year." Cranbrook coach Dan Hazen said. "They've got some big kids and this Barclay (Bill). Barclay led all some with the busides.

Barclay led all some with an additionable of the busides. Barclay led all some with an additionable of the busides. Barclay led all some with an additionable of the busides of the bus Cranbrook fell behind by 16 points in the first half and then were outscored 12-7 in the third quarter. The Cranes mounted a come-from-behind effort during which they out-pointed Curistian 25-11, but it was not enough to turn the tide.

Christian raised its record to 12-3 with the victory, while Cranbrook fell to a 5-10 mark.

Both learns return to action 8 p.m., tomorrow evening with Southfield Christian playing host to Troy Beth-any Christian and Cranbrook entertain-ing Lutberan North.
