Overtricks are very important in duplicate bridge and Vince Remey of Southfield managed to take of Southfield managed to take three.

He was playing with his wife Joan. The Remeys, one of our great husband-wife pairs, have won many tournaments; playing with each other and with other partners. They are both very strong players. Last Sunday they strong players. Last Sunday they strong players. East, Sunday they strong players. South the Wolverine Regional held at Roma's of Bloomfield.

Normal Service of diamonds. Service of diamonds. Joan overcalled West's opening club bid with one heart; Vince bid won ottomy and Joan bid game. The diamond opening was won in the closed hand and a heart led toward dummy. West played low and the ten won. A small spade to the jack and another heart to the board. West took the ace and played another heart. This was all Vince needed to make six. He ran the hearts discarding two spades and a diamond from the closed hand. West could still discard safely. He then finessed the spade queen, and cashed the ace. West could no longer discarding two spades and a longer discarding two spades and a longer discarding two spades and then finessed the spade queen, and cashed the ace. West could no longer discarding two spades and safely. He then finessed the spade queen, and cashed the spade spade queen, and cashed the ace. West could no longer discarding the spade spade card and protect the club and the diamond.

West missed two opportunities. She never led the queen of clubs.

Franklin Knolls plan fashion show

Franklin Knoils Women's Club is planning its 19th annual fashion show for March 2 in the ballroom in Bloomfield Hills Kingsley Inn. The event will get under way with cockails at II am. followed by a gourmel luncheon.

The fashions, under the heading of "An Easter Parade." will come from the Jacquelles Shops.

It is the major fundr-aising for the club, with all proceeds going to New Borizons of Oakland County.

Tickets are $7.50 and are available from Mrs. John King at 628-8738.
