Media pros to give tips

Transition 77, third annual communications career conference for students and professionals, will be held Feb. 25 at Oakland Center on the Oakland University campus in Rochester. Participants will meet with more than 50 representatives from advertising, public relations, the press, radio and television, and business communications during the 21 panels and main assembly sessions throughout the one-day event.

Ethel Simmons, entertainment editor for the Observer & Eccentric newspapers, will be one of the media people feature at 10-minute individual sessions with a professional. These sessions will be offered at 4 p.m., at the close of the conference.

Sponsoring groups for Transition include the Detroit chapters of Adcraft Club; American Women in Radio and Television, Inc.; International Association of Business Communicators, Public Relations Society of America, Society of Professional Journalists, Sigma Delta Chi, Women's Advertising Club and Women in Communications, Inc.

Further information about conference enrollment is available by calling 962-7223.

Stereo show runs 3 days

The Great Michigan Stereo Showsponsored by the Independent Audio Specialists of Michigan will be presented Friday through Sunday at Souther's Northland Inn in Southfield. Hours will be 5-10 p.m. Friday and 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. The show will encompass the entire top three floors of the inn. Manufacturers from coast-to-coast will be exhibiting the newest in home audio equipment. Technical experts will give product demonstrations and offer special "how-to" seminars. Experts will answer questions on how to get the best out of your present equipment or how to plan a new system. There will be a panorama of rare and historic audio equipment which showcases original prototypes and traces the development of today's electronic audio miracles.

Loving Cup performing

The Loving Cup—Marlene, Danny, Roger and Vinnie—are playing at The Monk's Celler at Twelve Mile and Orchard Lake Road in Farmington. They will play through June 11. The group appears Tuesday through Saturday from 4 p.m.-2 a.m. Special dinners Sunday through Friday, at $3.95, include soup, salad, potato, a glass of wine and choice of entree, from chicken and ribs, stuffed flounder, prime rib sandwich or sirloin strip steak.

There is no cover charge at the Monk's Celler.
