Read-a-thon forms ready

Library patrons are invited to join the Friends of the Farmington Libraries read-a-thon which will run throughout month of March.

"All of the rules are spelled out on the sponsor sheets," said librarian Gordon Lewis, "and they can be picked up from any librarian at either branch."

Lewis said that monies raised would be used to purchase library materials, but the main thrust of the read-a-thon is to promote more use of the two libraries.

Sponsors may pledge any amount they wish for each book read, and they may also stipulate a maximum amount to be paid.

Beginning March 1, librarians will begin to validate books read for the read-a-thon participants.
