Mrs. Wasserman named 'Woman of the Year'

Pioneer Women of Detroit will salute Goldie Wasserman as their "Woman of the Year" at the annual Israel Bond Tribute Luncheon.

The Farmington resident will be the recipient of Israel's "Jerusalem, City of Peace" award at the event, to be held April 28 in Congregation Beth Achim.

The honoree was a founding member of the council's Kinneret Chapter, which later became Hanita. She is a past president of Hanita and a past president of the Pioneer Women Council.

She is an active member of the League of Jewish Women, the Greater Detroit Motion Picture and Television Council and is active in the Israel bond program.

Her husband Sam is a charter member of the Farmland Camp, Brenner Branch, and is an honorary member of Hanita.

The couple have two children, Larry and Lillian. Her daughter is currently vice-president of the Pioneer Women Council.

Reservations for the luncheon are available by calling the Pioneer Women office, 851-0750.
