Ms. Fuelling named to dean's list

Dorothy Fuelling, 2226 Bramwell, Farmington, was named to the dean's list for the fall 1976 semester at University of Michigan-Dearborn's division of education.

2 make dean's list

Farmington residents Marianne Walck and David B. Hammar were named to the dean's list for academic achievement during the first semester at Hope College. Ms. Walck is a junior and Hammar is a freshman at the college in Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Branch

Rhonda Harkerd and Richard Branch were recently in ceremonies conducted by Rev. Joseph L. Wright, in Queen of the Miraculous Medal Catholic Church in Jackson. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Harkerd, of Jackson, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Branch, 24677 Springbrook, Farmington Hills.

For her wedding the bride wore an empire-styled white jersey gown with maribou trim on the sleeves and hem. Her chiffon veil was trimmed with maribou and she carried orchids and baby carriages.

Linda Harkerd, of Jackson, served as her sister's maid of honor, with bridesmaid Kathy Harkerd. Their gowns were blue and rose, fashioned in the same style as the bride's. Chris Branch served as his brother's best man, with ushers Brian Moore and Matthew Branch, both of Farmington Hills; John Harkerd and Tom Harkerd, both of Jackson.

The couple received guests at the Cascades Club House in Jackson. The bride is a graduate of Nazareth College and Western Michigan University and now teaches in Jackson Public Schools.

The groom is a graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School and Nazareth College, and teaches children with learning disabilities in the Kalamazoo School District.
