

Artist donates his paintings

Franklin artist Max Shaye has donated $25,000 worth of his works for an exhibition and sale in Farmington, from March 12 and 13 for the benefit of the Chabad House scholarship fund.

The exhibition and sale at the Labor Zionist Institute, 2855 Middlebelt, includes a champagne and hors d'oeuvres reception and an exhibit from 7-11 p.m. March 12 and from 4-8 p.m. March 13. The March 13 showing will be followed by an illustrated talk by the artist.

Chabad House at the University of Michigan's Ann Arbor campus is one of 20 such non-profit facilities at major universities where Jewish students can meet, dine and learn their heritage and traditions.

League sponsors medical display

The West Bloomfield-Farmington League of Women Voters is sponsoring an emergency medical display at the Orchard Mall March 7-12, from 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

The mall is located at Maple and Orchard Lake Road. Demonstrations will include first-aid procedures, cardio-pulmonary resuscitation. A movie will be shown entitled "Cry for Help."

Max Shaye shows one of the pictures he has donated to the Labor Zionist Institute sale.

Chinese party will greet new year

The Year of the Snake, will be greeted in grand style at the Wing Hong restaurant Sunday night, the start of the Chinese new year. The restaurant is sponsoring a free show, featuring traditional Chinese dances in its parking lot.

The festivities are scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. If the weather is inclement, the celebration will be moved inside.
