Politics is sermon topic

Two guest speakers of Farmington March will talk on the politics of the future. Zoltan Ferency, the Unitarian Church founder of the Human Right Party and a Supreme Court candidate in 1976, will talk about the new political scene and how humanist philosophies can be implemented into the government of today and tomorrow.

Ed Pierce, who is a doctor from Ann Arbor, and who ran on the Democratic ticket for the House of Representatives in 1976, will talk about political alternatives.

Both speakers will deal in the context of the Michigan and national scene.

The church is located at 26301 Halstead, between Grand River and Eleven Mile.
