

3 taverns celebrating

St. Patrick's Day will be celebrated in style on Thursday at three Chuck Muer family taverns in Bloomfield Hills, Northville and Dearborn. All will feature professional musicians leading sing-alongs, with song sheets provided, green drinks for the men, waiters and waitresses dressed as leprechauns and Irish food and drink.

Not only the beer will be green, but two special St. Pat's cocktails are being offered: Charley's Shillelagh and Charley's Shamrock.

Irish food specials are O'Halloran's Irish Slew, O'Grady's Corned Beef and Cabbage and Grasshopper Pie. Bloomfield Charley's and Northville Charley's will celebrate at both lunch and dinner, and on to closing. Son of Sondag is open for cocktails and dinner, 4:30-11 p.m.

Northville's is going all-out with a barbershop quartet, piano players and a small chorus from Northville High School, and Kay Chapman playing guitar.

Bloomfield Charley's is featuring Tim Smith on the accordion from noon-2 p.m. and from 8 p.m.-1 a.m. Son of Sondag will have a guitar and banjo duo entertaining.

Rick Pressley at Downunder

Vocalist Rick Pressley plays folk tunes and music for easy listening through Saturday at the Downunder Room at The Meeting Place in Orchard Lake.

In a return engagement, Bill Albert sings folk tunes and jests with the audience Sunday through Tuesday and March 27-29 at the Downunder.

In the lounge at the Double Eagle in Troy, Bill Rogers is at the piano through Saturday. A singer, writer and performer, he plays everything from soft rock to Bachman/Tierney.
