

Oak Parker set for Bon honors

Bnai Brith's Oakland Century Lodge and the government of Israel will honor Ernest M. Solomon of Oak Park at the annual Oakland Century-Israel Bond Dinner at 6:30 p.m., April 12 at Adat Shalom Synagogue.

Solomon will receive the United Jerusalem Award from the Israeli government for his dedication and devotion to his community and Israel.

A native Detroit, Solomon is president of Arian's Insurance Center. He is a member of the Mutual Association of Insurance Agents and in addition to his support of Bnai Brith programs is an active worker for the State of Israel Bond Organization and is a member of the Masons' Oak Park Lodge.

Married to the former Gloria Sommer, Solomon has two children: Stephen, a student at Michigan State University, and Shelby, an aide to U. S. Rep. James Blanchard.

For reservations and information call the bond office at 968-0200.

ERNEST SOLOMON

Freed-MacColl

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Freed of Southfield announce the engagement of their daughter Joni Rochelle to John C. MacColl, son of Mr. and Mrs. George MacColl of North Palm Beach, Fla.

The bride-elect is studying for a bachelor's degree in speech pathology and audiology. Her fiancé graduated from Michigan State University in 1975 and is employed by Hornblower and Weeks. Hemphill and Noyes of Southfield.
