

Township Sets Public Hearings

The meeting was only 35 minutes long, but when the members of the Farmington Township Board collected their papers and left Monday night they had made commitments for many of their evenings during the coming month.

What caused the time commitments were a series of requests for public hearings on special assessment districts in the township.

The Board set a total of six hearings for projects ranging from road improvement to sanitary sewers to Detroit water.

SCHEDULED were hearings on:

The necessity for Detroit water in the Franklin Fairway Subdivision on Monday, Aug. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

A proposal to pave a portion of Robinson St. -- Aug. 26 at 8 p.m.

Necessity to establish a special assessment district in order to install sanitary sewers on Robinson St. -- Tuesday, Aug. 27, at 7:30 p.m. Total estimated cost of this project is $14,540.

On the same evening at 8 p.m., the board will conduct a hearing on the necessity of sewer facilities for the Farmington Gardens Subdivision in the Nine Mile -- Middle Belt area. Estimated cost of this project is $45,500.

The Board will hold a meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 4, on a special assessment district for road improvement work on Sunnydale in Section 34.

An estimated $530,000 sewer project for Springbrook will come up for public hearing at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 10.

Each one of these special assessment districts will require another public hearing on the assessment roll before the public hearing cycle is completed.

Kiwanis To Observe Family Day

In keeping with efforts of Kiwanis International and the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Township Supervisor Curtis H. Hall has proclaimed Sunday, Aug. 11 as Family Reunion Day in the township.

Local Kiwanis members will celebrate the day with a big picnic outing on Sept. 1 in a park at Northville.

Farmington Kiwanis member, Keith Deacon, stated that the club hopes to encourage other local groups to hold similar observations stressing family unity.

The sponsoring groups have developed ideas and programs to dramatize the family and its vital role in daily life.

Honor Comes To Salesman

Derrill W. Schaeferberger, 34164 Schulte Dr., Farmington, Detroit hospital market manager for the Automated Business Systems Division of Litton Industries, has qualified for membership in Crest Club, the division's honorary salesmanship society. This is his fifth qualification.

In recognition of his performance, Schaeferberger will attend the annual Crest Club meeting Aug. 13-16 at the Kings Inn and Golf Club, Freeport, British West Indies.

hours in local Democratic headquarters making phone calls and handling routine office work in an unsuccessful attempt to get Zolton Terency elected Governor.

Presently working in Democratic Headquarters on Grand River Ave., Davis is spending endless hours arranging voter cards by precinct into streets. When this project is completed, he will spend his remaining days in Farmington with voter identification. This work involves numerous phone calls and door-to-door canvassing to encourage voters to register, attempt to determine party affiliation and gather opinions from citizens on what their most serious problems are.

Little League Sets Aug. 21 Awards Night

Farmington's Little League baseball commissioner, Chuck Smith, announced the upcoming annual awards night to be held Wednesday, Aug. 21, starting at 7:30 p.m. in the Farmington Jr. High gymnasium, 3300 Thomas Ave.

All Little Leaguers including Tee Ballers, Minors, Majors and Pony Co. and their parents are invited to attend.

A celebrity from the sports world will be present to meet the boys and discuss new Little League plans for 1969. Smith said awards will be given to some 200 boys out of the 800 participating in the league.

Immediate plans after graduation will be to enter the teaching field for awhile with one eye on politics. Davis says he will stay active in local politics and possibly, one day, run for public office.

The first attempt will probably be for precinct delegate. Davis says, but eventually he might run for township trustee. His party work has provided valuable training, making him familiar with citizens and their problems and with the party workers who will provide future backing.

His work this summer has been strictly volunteer with no pay, which Davis hopes will show the party he can be relied upon. Davis says the largest incentive challenging him to run for public office are the problems facing the people of Farmington such as better roads, water and sewers.

Why does a 21-year-old serviceman spend his leave working party politics? If you don't know yet, the answer may come during the 1974 election.

WHILE TALKING with Airman Davis, the conversation eventually shifted to the Vietnam War.

"Military service has helped me a great deal," he said, "because I can see our biggest national issue first hand."

"The question of whether we should be there is not relevant. We are simply following the commitments made during the Eisenhower administration. Personally, I feel the only way out is through the conference tables."
