

60 Germans to sing in area

Sixty young German singers will present two concerts of light music, including many folk songs, at two locations April 10 and 11.

They will offer an Easter Sunday performance at Our Lady of Sorrows, 23615 Power Farmington, and a 8 p.m. concert Monday at Madonna College, Schoolcraft and Levan, Livonia.

Scheduled to be Farmington visitors over the weekend, the singing group from Oytten, Germany are participants in the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp international exchange program.

The program is promotes world understanding through music. During the summer Blue Lake will send 254 students and staff on four separate tours to Denmark, Norway, Sweden and northern Germany. Involved will be a band, choir, orchestra and jazz band.

In exchange, 10 young European musical organizations will visit Michigan as guests of the Blue Lake camp. While in this country Junior Singers Oytten will stay with host families, as will members of the Blue Lake International Choir when they visit the small town of Oytten, Germany during the summer of 1978.

Entertainment at the Summit

"Susan Reed and her Singing Strings," led by a former Miss Farmington, will provide the entertainment for the American Diabetes Association-Michigan Affiliate's sneak preview of The Summit on April 17. It is the first fund-raising event of the group's newly formed auxiliary, chaired by Mrs.

Lee Iacocca, planned in the revolving restaurant atop the Detroit Plaza Hotel, on the even of its public opening. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served as guest enjoy a 360 view of Detroit and Canada.
