Baseball coaches are optimistic

Seldom are Michigan Aprils conducive to spring training in any outdoor sport respecially baseball.

But, despite the cold and damy eather which keeps the hip school players indoors, the baseball coaches at the three Farmington hip schools are loaded with the usual pre-season or polimism as their teams prepare for their opening games. North Farmigton opens on Thursday with a home double header against Highland Park. Farmington Harrison has an April 23 at Waterford Township. "It was a promising the present of their opening games. North Farmington opens its North-west Suburban League season on April 20 at Thurston High. The NSL has become known for its strong baseball teams. "The league's always tough." Maxwell said. "You can have a good team and still get blasted. Livonia Franklin, which was in the top 10 in the state last year, always seems to come up with a good team. And I expect Thurston to have an improved team this year."
