MR. AND MRS. KENNETH BARNABY

Barnabys celebrate 50th year

Ethel and Kenneth Barnaby will be hosted by their three children when a dinner will be given to celebrate the couple's 50th wedding anniversary.

The couple were wed April 17, 1927. Family and friends, some coming from California, Arizona and Florida, will gather for the fete April 16 in Botsford Inn.

The Barnabys have lived in Farmington since 1933 when they built a home on Farmington Road, before it was paved. They now reside at 22849 Maple.

During 25 years of their marriage, they worked together as owners and operators of New Center Typesetting in Detroit's New Center district. The couple's three children are Barbara Lamb, Richard Barnaby and David Barnaby. They have 10 grandchildren.

Interior Design Seminar

a kaleidoscope of ideas for your home brought into focus with a little help from members of our own Interior Design staff. Join us in the Design Studio, each Thursday at 7:30 P.M. for four consecutive weeks, beginning April 21st through May 12th. We'll be discussing the myriad ways in which to coordinate your home, reflecting your own personal tastes . . . from basics like color,

fabrics and furnishings . . . onto lamps and lighting . . . and then into the wonderful world of accessorizing

with paintings, curios and plants

MR. AND MRS. EUGENE REUTER

Golden anniversary celebrated by Reuters

Vi and Eugene Reuter will return to Farmington from their winter home in Tampa, Fla., to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with family and friends.

The couple, whose summer home is at 38271 Grand River, were married in a double wedding ceremony on April 30, 1926 in their hometown of Staunton, Ill. They share their wedding date with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mull. Margaret Mull is Mrs. Reuter's sister.

The Reuters came to Detroit when he joined the Detroit Police Department, where he retired as superintendent of police, in 1968, after 38 years.

During their residency in Detroit, Mrs. Reuter taught Sunday School for more than 25 years in Holy Cross Lutheran Church where they are both members.

The couple have one daughter, Mrs. Ronald McDonough, the former Jackie Reuter; one grandson, Ronald, a student at Michigan State University, and two granddaughters, Carol and Sue, both students in Farmington high schools.

The anniversary celebration will be held April 30 in Botsford Inn.
