John Wilson, Community Relations Manager, Royal Oak, offers you this telephone tip:

"How can you tell if the person at your door is really a Michigan Bell Employee?"

As you may have noticed, our employees do not wear uniforms. They dress in the way they think is most appropriate to get their jobs done. While this permits them to look like the individuals they really are, it really doesn't help you identify them as Bell employees. But there is a way. Every Bell employee who comes to service your phone is required to carry a Michigan Bell identification card giving his or her name, photograph and signature. For your protection, ask to see this card before you admit them into your home. They'll be happy to show it to you.

Michigan Bell employees—people who know what they're doing...and care about it.
