

Spring art exhibit

Norma Jean Curran puts the finishing touches on one of the paintings that will be part of Farmington Artist Club's spring art exhibit in Farmington Community Library April 29-30 and May 1. The show will feature a wide variety of styles and techniques created by club members, many of whom are prominent artists in the Detroit area. Admission is free. Show hours are from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and from noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Phyllis Snow gives opera season preview

Phyllis Snow describes the subject of opera as her "vocation that is also an avocation."

Phyllis Snow describes the subject of opera as her "vocation that is also an avocation." She brings her knowledge of opera to the Farmington Community Center April 29 when she will acquaint her audience with Detroit's 1977 season of the Metropolitan Opera which runs from May 23-28. Her talk follows at 9:30 a.m. continental breakfast.

Mrs. Snow is a native Detroit and a graduate of the University of Michigan with a BA in philosophy. She is a founding member and trustee of Michigan Opera Theatre and serves on the board of the Detroit Grand Opera Association and Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts.

She will tell about operatic luminaries, and acquaint her audience with the librettos of "Le Prophete" and "Die Zauberflote" as well as some of the more familiar ones, such as "La Boheme," "Tosca," and "Il Trovatore."

Tickets at $2.50 per person are now on sale in the center.

Seafari comes to Northwest Y

A "Seafari," led by Shirley Mersky will open the Armchair Vacation series sponsored by Northwest YWCA, 25940 Grand River, on Tuesdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. beginning April 25.

Mrs. Mersky and her husband rode rubber rafts in the San Ignacio Lagoon in the Pacific Ocean. She will show slides and give details of her trip in the first of three unusual vacations to be told about in the series.

On May 10, Terri Atkinson, of Glenn Travel Agency, will describe her trip to the Asiatic region of the Soviet Union and tell of camping in Mongolia.

On May 24, Ernest Getz, of Pleasant Ridge, will show movie films of his visit to Nepal, and his climb through the Himalayas.

Free for the series is $3. Registrations are being taken through the branch office at K.E. 7-8500.
