

Downpour can't stop Elks Relays

Dearborn High won the Elks Relays Saturday for the 10th time in the last 12 years, but second through fourth place was not decided until after the pole vault competition had been completed Sunday, a day later than initially scheduled.

Dearborn had placed first in three relays and finished high in several others Saturday to insure winning the title. However, because weather was so bad, the pole vault was not contested.

Redford Bishop Bergess, Livonia Franklin and Westland John Glenn were bunched so close after every event but the pole vault had been completed that it was decided to settle the matter the following day with the vault.

Fortunately, the rains held off long enough Sunday for the final event.

Borgess' Tim Turner, Matt Harmon and Jim Ronchetto combined for a height of 34-6 to win the event and push the Spartans into second place with 38 points.

Franklin finished second in the pole vault and third overall with 34 points.

and Glenn placed third in the pole vault and fourth overall with 32 points.

DEARBORN, which won the shot put relay, the 800-yard relay and the mile relay, tallied 44 points.

Garden City West, the other area entrant, tied for sixth place with Inkster Cherry Hill and Royal Oak Dondoro with nine points.

Each of the area representatives placed first in at least one event. Borgess, in addition to winning the pole vault relay, took the 440-yard relay with Ron Cwik, Mike Zelanski, Steve Krogulecki and Turner. Their time was 4:16 seconds.

Glenn finished first in the distance medley with Cliff Williamson, Dan Smithman, Mark Johnson and Ted Unold. Their effort was 11:04.2.

John Adam, Kevin Eddy and Chuck Heil combined to hurl the discus 184 feet for Franklin's win, and Mark Oblinger, Al Brackett, Jerry Smith and Keith Stark won the shuttle hurdle relay for West with a time of 1:24.6.

We'll help you save because you want to, not just because you think you're supposed to.

We believe that too many people think of saving as something that's difficult to do. Well, we suggest that you think of saving as accomplishment rather than requirement.

Think of it in terms of the pleasure and usefulness your saved money can provide, instead of just thinking about all the terrible things that you might suddenly need money for.

If you only think about the bad things, it's hard to have a good feeling about saving. And we think that makes it harder to build good savings habits.

Maybe if you talk about it with us, you'll see that your concern with not being able to save enough money has kept you from saving whatever money you could have saved.

Come and talk. We think you'll find it an enriching experience.

We know what money is for.
