

Farmington Theater
N. J. Eisenlord & Son
Show Wednesday & Saturday

SATURDAY
June Elvidge in
"The Power and the Glory"
WEDNESDAY
Fritzi Brunette in
"PLAYTYPINGS"
and a good comedy

Admission 10 and 15 Cents
(Including War Tax)

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fuller spent Sunday in Detroit.

Miss Etta Smith, of Detroit, visited Tuesday with Mrs. Nina Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John Melow and daughter Ruth were in Pontiac last Friday.

Forest Green attended a dancing party at Strassburg's Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Mae-Ely and brother Alfonso, of Detroit, visited relatives here Sunday.

Misses Nina Warner and Ruth Carlisle visited over Sunday with friends in Highland.

Mrs. John Voorheis visited her daughter, Mrs. DeConick, at Orchard Lake Wednesday.

Mrs. Lina Smith and niece, Fern Peck, were in Detroit Monday to see the parade of the 32nd.

Miss Keitha Botsford spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Botsford, at St. Clair.

Mrs. Gusta Graham has gone to stay for a while with her nephew, Dan Hopkins and wife, at New Hudson.

Mrs. Bert Rivers and son Ralph, of Plymouth, visited last Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Booth and husband.

Regular meeting of the Progressive Bible Class at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller next Tuesday evening, May 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. John Melow have been entertaining the former's cousin, Mrs. George Hinman, of Billings, Montana.

Florence Hambleton, of Lockport, N. Y., came Sunday night, called here by the death of her brother's wife, Mrs. R. W. Hambleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and daughter Frances will remain with R. W. Hambleton for the present, while they are building a home in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pierce attended a reception for the nurses at Harper hospital, Detroit, Friday evening. Mrs. Pierce's sister is a nurse at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lord and children visited last Sunday in Davison and Grand Blanc. Her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Noble and children accompanied them home and have been spending the week here, prior to leaving for their new home in Montana.

As Mrs. Lyman Sprague, of Detroit, was attempting to board a street car last Friday afternoon she was hit and knocked down by an automobile striking her head against it.

She was picked up and taken to the hospital, where it was found she was not seriously injured, and although bruised and lame from the experience is rapidly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sprague hearing of the accident, went down to the Sprague home immediately.

George McNabb, an employee of the Edison company, was taken very ill Wednesday evening about 5 o'clock with heart trouble at the Junction. Henry Pauline was sent for and he found him on the floor unconscious. Medical aid was near at hand and he was brought to the home of Mr. Pauline, and on Thursday was so far recovered that he went to his home in Detroit. The report was all over town that it was Mr. Pauline who was ill.

Fish beginning to bite. Remember that "early fly" and "swat him."

Will Chamberlain and son Harold in Detroit Monday.

A number of friends and relatives from here attended the funeral of Mr. Hardenburgh at Redford Wednesday.

Clyde Walker, of Franklin, visited friends in Farmington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nichols and son Hinman were in Detroit Wednesday.

Pauline Vogt visited last Sunday with Louis Weber and family at Orchard Lake.

Misses Katherine and Harriett Skinner, of Detroit, were the guests of the Misses Boynton last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Benedict and daughter Olive, of Detroit, visited last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ham.

Mrs. John Voorheis this week sold her home to Mr. and Mrs. William Connor, of Detroit. They expect to occupy the place as soon as repairs are made.

Mrs. Herbert Booth and sister, Lillian Micol, of Plymouth, were in Detroit Monday, when they met their brother, Fred Micol, who returned from overseas.

Miss Eva Bradley, of Wayne, was home over Sunday. Her parents accompanied her back as far as Plymouth, where they called on Orrin Peck and wife.

F. M. Warner, Dr. E. F. Holcomb, Amos Otis, John Clark, Joseph Graham and H. C. Thayer attended K. T. Ascension Day services at Northville last Sunday.

Ivan Webber and family, of Pontiac, spent Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. Leon Green and family, and Sunday they all went to Plymouth, to the home of their parents, Robert Webber and wife, where they enjoyed a family dinner, it being their father's birthday; also their 39th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Webber and children, Miss Ella Kelley and Carl Brunner of Detroit, were also present.

The last meeting of the Ladies' Union was with Mrs. Bridget Lapham and a very enjoyable time was spent. A nice luncheon served, which was enjoyed by all ladies present. The next meeting, Thursday, May 29th, will be with Mrs. Frank Walters. At this meeting Mrs. Holmes from the Church of Our Father, Detroit, will be present to give a talk to the ladies on Missionary work in the Michigan Universalist churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson has sold his home on Grand River to Amos Otis.

Loren & Beckwith spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Earl Groat, at Redford.

Mrs. H. D. Wolcott entertained the North Farmington Cemetery Auxillary Tuesday. A good turnout.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Newman and sons visited her parents, Elmer Lyon and family, at Redford, Sunday.

Mrs. Perry Prindle of Detroit, was in town Tuesday, and attended the funeral of Mrs. R. W. Hambleton.

Mrs. Arthur Lamb and Viola, and Rev. E. C. Benson and father attended the Ladies' Aid of Novi Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Will Mairs.

Rev. Charles Benson, of Davison, has been with his son the past week. He preached the Sunday evening sermon at the M. E. church last Sunday.

Miss Ethel Bade gave a house party last week-end, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bade. Her guests were Miss Mattie M. Moore, of Algonac; Miss Pearl Caldwell, of Imlay City; Miss Ruth Matthews, of Ypsilanti, and Miss Gladys Junth, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Seeley went to Detroit Sunday and met Will Smith, who just returned from overseas and brought him out to their home where he spent the day. He returned Monday to march in the parade, and from there he went to Camp Custer to receive his discharge, after which he will return to Mr. Seeley's home. Mr. Smith worked for Mr. Seeley two years previous to going to the war, and has no near relatives.

Sunday as real estate dealer, A. W. Glasgow, of Detroit, and his family, were driving south near Lock's corners on the cement road, they saw a car coming—headed right for them, and before they could get out of the way the cars came together. It seems the driver of the other car had a man on the seat with him hold the wheel while he lighted a cigar, and he could not control it. The two cars, Mr. Glasgow's car a large Hudson Super-six and the other car also a large one, struck head-on, badly smashing both. No one was seriously injured, although Mrs. Glasgow had her face badly cut with glass from the wind-shield requiring several stitches. At the others were only slightly scratched and bruised. Mrs. Glasgow was holding her three-weeks-old baby on her lap, which almost miraculously escaped injury.

With the arrival home of Howard Eisenlord and George Miller, our boys are all back from overseas, except those who gave the "supreme sacrifice." They arrived in town Wednesday night.

The Azuwer, a soldier paper published in Detroit in the interest of the soldier patients at Base Hospital No. 36, of the date of May 14th has a picture of Dallas Harger, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Harger of this village. Dallas is a member of Troop No. 32, Boy Scouts, and in a Scout contest in selling the above paper he is in the lead, and in line for a gold medal, having thus far sold 3,300 papers. His nearest competitor has sold 1,525.

Always ready—always fresh—always welcome. An appetizer at the beginning of the meal, making the best soup better, and the final touch of satisfaction when the cheese and coffee are served. Nothing can take the place of Uneeda Biscuit on the family table.

NATIONAL Biscuit COMPANY

Uneeda Biscuit

Always ready—always fresh—always welcome. An appetizer at the beginning of the meal, making the best soup better, and the final touch of satisfaction when the cheese and coffee are served. Nothing can take the place of Uneeda Biscuit on the family table.

NATIONAL Biscuit COMPANY

Uneeda Biscuit

Always ready—always fresh—always welcome. An appetizer at the beginning of the meal, making the best soup better, and the final touch of satisfaction when the cheese and coffee are served. Nothing can take the place of Uneeda Biscuit on the family table.

NATIONAL Biscuit COMPANY

Uneeda Biscuit

Always ready—always fresh—always welcome. An appetizer at the beginning of the meal, making the best soup better, and the final touch of satisfaction when the cheese and coffee are served. Nothing can take the place of Uneeda Biscuit on the family table.

NATIONAL Biscuit COMPANY

Uneeda Biscuit

Always ready—always fresh—always welcome. An appetizer at the beginning of the meal, making the best soup better, and the final touch of satisfaction when the cheese and coffee are served. Nothing can take the place of Uneeda Biscuit on the family table.

NATIONAL Biscuit COMPANY

Uneeda Biscuit

Wall Paper

We will have a good assortment of New Papers to select from. There are a few old patterns left, which we are closing out at reduced prices. Call in and make your selections.

Stoneware

We have just received a shipment of Jugs, Milk Crocks, Butter Crocks and Churns, and can supply your wants in this line. Come and see them!

Garden Seeds and Plants

We carry a full line of SEEDS from D. M. Ferry & Co., and the American Seed Co. Also Cabbage and Tomato Plants from the local Green Houses. Give us your orders.

Cash Mercantile Co.

Phone No. 10 Farmington, Michigan

VICTORY CELEBRATION

GF AND OPENING LAKE ORION

Military Ball Thursday Night, May 29th

Decoration Day, May 30--Free Barbecue

at 12 noon, for Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Ladies. Dozens of Amusements--2 Orchestras. Dancing all day

FOUR SMASHING BIG DAYS--FOUR
May 29th, 30th, June 1st and 2nd

VICTORY SUNDAY

Bishop Theodore S. Henderson,
D. D., L. L., D.,
Resident Bishop of Detroit
Area will be present and speak

Where?

M. E. Church, Farmington

When?

Sunday, May 25, 1919

at 10:30 a. m. Special Music.
Men's Chorus in the Evening.

Don't Fail to be Present

