We were informed very smilingly that one of the "Ralph Hogle houses" on North Division street belong to Paul Schaupeter.

Well, if we didn't make mistakes there would be no place for us in the "regions here below."

Manager Hogle, of the Farmington Lumber & Coal Co., last week advertised in the "want column" for some hay, and found what he wanted soon after the paper went out on Friday.

Before the end of the week he had received 12 telephone calls in answer to that little three line want. Such is the report of most all the users of our want column. Try it.
