LESSON FOR OCTOBER 26

A LESSON IN TRUST.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 16:7-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Believe: help thou mine unbelief."—Mark 9:24.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Mark 4:35-41.
24-25: Luke 11:15-17.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Help in the storm.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Faith comes to the help of his disciples.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Help when most needed.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—An ever-present helper.

The storm-tossed disciples on the sea at night is an example of the struggling followers of the Lord in the darkness of the present age, as they are tossed by the tempests of the evil one.

1. The Disciples on the Storm-tossed Sea (v. 22-23). They were sent across the sea by Christ (v. 22). Doubtless his reason for this was to keep them from idleness in the moments of the storm.

2. Christ dismissed the multitude (v. 22). This may be taken as typical of the rejection of the nation whose rulers had already rejected him.

3. Christ praying alone in the mountain (v. 23). Temptation to earthly honor and power had come to him; therefore he went to the Father in prayer for relief and strength.

4. Christ praying alone in the mountain (v. 23). Temptation to earthly honor and power had come to him; therefore he went to the Father in prayer for relief and strength. While his prayer was in part for himself, yet it was for his disciples. According to Mark 4:8, he saw from the mountain top the disciples toiling on the storm-tossed sea. We are never out of his sight as we struggle against the storms of life, and he ever lives to make intercession for us.

5. Jesus Walking on the Sea (v. 25-27).

1. It was in the fourth watch of the night (v. 25). He did not come to them immediately, but waited till almost dawn. It was, however, the darkest part of the night, and physical danger was great, but their perplexity of mind was greater. They knew that the Lord had sent them, but why should they be in such straits if he sent them? A stormy sea is no appointed way. The disciples' concern should be to obey the commands of the Lord, being assured that while doing his will he will protect them.

2. The disciples alarmed at his coming (v. 26). It was the coming of one best friend to deliver them from danger. He comes to us today in such ways that sometimes we are frightened.

3. Jesus' words of comfort and good cheer (v. 27). In the midst of their distress they heard the Master's words, "Be of good cheer; it is I, be not afraid." This changed their fear into joy.

4. Peter's Venture and Failure (v. 28-35).

As soon as Peter recognized the voice of Jesus he cried, "Bid me come to thee on the water." Jesus said, "Come." Peter obeyed, and for a time he walked upon the waves without sinking. His simple faith looked him with divine power and he was upheld; but as soon as he took his eyes off his Lord and considered the raging sea he began to sink. If we will but keep our eyes on the Lord instead of the waves we can outstride the storms of life. When Peter began to sink, he did one sensible thing; he cried to the Lord for help. Jesus reached forth his hand and saved him. He has never lost one who honestly cried for help. When Jesus entered the ship he came from the people worshiped him as the Son of God. No ship can go down with Jesus on board.

Hath Not Where to Lay His Head.

People are to be pitied who have no home. John Howard Payne, in Paris, homeless and miserable, uttered the universal longing of the human heart when in a cold and dreary garret he wrote the words of "Home, Sweet Home." There are many people in the world who are driven from pillar to post, and who can say of no spot on earth, "This is my home." Think particularly of him who has come from his Father's House to this inhospitable earth and who said, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man hath not where to lay his head."

Sublime Sentiment.

"Beware," said Lavater, "of him who hates the laugh of a child." "I love God and little children," was the simple yet sublime sentiment of Richter.—Mrs. Sigourney.

The Heart of the Believer.

The heart of the believer is the home of God. The church of the Lord Jesus is his holy temple. He dwells here by his Holy Spirit, and makes known through the church, to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, his manifold wisdom. This is a superlative honor. It brings with it a supreme obligation.

One Thing at a Time.

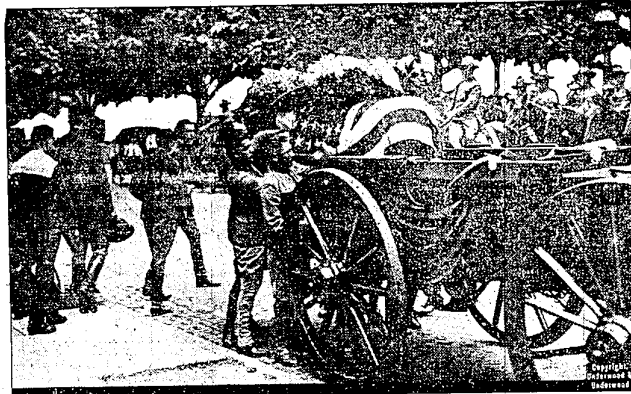

The shortest way to do many things is to do only one thing at a time. Cecil.

FEDERAL TROOPS STOP RIOTING AT GARY

Rioting by the steel strikers at Gary, Ind., was speedily stopped by the federal troops under the command of Gen. Wood. Some of them are here seen with machine guns in one of the principal streets of the town.

BURIAL OF A FRENCH OFFICER AT ARLINGTON CEMETERY

Lieut. Henri Couquet, a distinguished French officer who died in Washington, was buried at Arlington cemetery with full military honors. Members of the state department and the French embassy attended.

LEARNING DAD'S BUSINESS

Cornelius A. Wood, younger son of William M. Wood, president of the American Woollen company, who has started at the bottom to learn the business and is working as wool sorter in the storehouse of the Washington mills at Lawrence, where this picture was taken. He gets $10 a week and has what is regarded as the toughest job in the place. He enlisted in the navy as a job, won a commission as ensign in a competitive examination and was discharged as a lieutenant, junior grade.

Doubtless True.

A friend of ours whose books of verse have been listed with the "best sellers" recently received a jolt that might have discouraged some writers.

Having some curiosity to see how the latest production was being received he went into a department store and inquired of the sales girl: "Have you Twanklyre's new book of poetry?"

"No," the girl replied, "but we have lots of other just as good."

We'll Bet She Did.

They were seeing San Francisco. They had come Chinatown, the seals, a couple of museums and the spaghetti tunnel in Bay Street. The evening found them in Peacock alley watching the Frangipani parade. Finally one of them had an inspiration. She turned to her companion.

"Do you like art?" she queried.

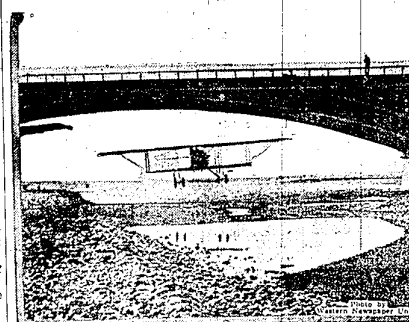

"Oh, law, yes. Whenever I hit a big city with an artery in it I always blow in."

BELGIAN ROYALTY AT NIAGARA FALLS

The king and queen of Belgium saw all there was to see at Niagara Falls and for the purpose they donned dinkies, as shown in the photograph.

FRENCH AVIATOR'S REMARKABLE FEAT

An interesting photograph of Aviator Malcom passing over the bridge of Var, at Nice, France. The plane has a width of nine meters, while the arch of the bridge is only a little over 14, and the plane was going at a speed of 62 miles per hour.

Foundation of True Beauty.

The true beauty arises from a noble character. A soul which is radiant with love and truth lights even the homeliest face into beauty which is not transient, but which grows ever deeper and more abiding as the years pass on.

Fish Live in Ice.

During several months of each year some of the great rivers of Siberia are frozen solid to the bottom, but the fishes imprisoned in the ice maintain their vitality and resume their active life when the ice melts in the spring.

"FIDDLE-FIT"

Keep Liver and Bowels Clean and Active with "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will have you feeling clear, rosy and as fit as a fiddle by morning. They work while you sleep.—Adv.

What the Railroads Collect.

In 1916, a year of normal conditions, each person in the United States paid $25 for railroad freight, a bill of $125 annually for the average family. Therefore each increase of 25 per cent in freight rates above the 1916 level means an increased per capita tax of $6.25, or an increased tax for each American family of $31.25. Freight rates have increased more than 50 per cent since 1916, therefore the freight bill for the average family is now around $200, all of which is paid indirectly, of course. These figures are worth studying before we again dip into our pockets to help railroad finances.

ASPIRIN FOR HEADACHE

Name "Bayer" is on Genuine Aspirin—say Bayer

Insist on "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in a "Bayer package," containing proper directions for Headache, Colds, Pain, Neuritis, Lumbago, and Rheumatism. Name "Bayer" means genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for nineteen years. Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost few cents. Aspirin is trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monacetate of Salicylic Acid.—Adv.

Worth Remembering.

Here is a good thing to remember: When you get sore in the world, don't forget that it will not hurt the world at all, while it may do you inconceivable harm. You are but a very small part of this old world and it will wage along just about as well without you as with you, so your complaints are not going to make so very much difference after all. Better keep sweet and to wait you can make conditions better instead of getting grouchy because things do not go to suit you. The cheerful man gets farther than the grouchy.

BOSCHEE'S SYRUP.

In these days of unsettled weather look out for colds. Take every precaution against the dreaded influenza and at the first sneeze remember that Boschée's Syrup has been used for fifty-three years in all parts of the United States for coughs, bronchitis and colds, throat irritation and especially for lung troubles, giving the patient a good night's rest, free from coughing, with such expectation in the morning. Boschée's Syrup is made in America and is a household panacea in the homes of thousands of families all over the civilized world. Try one bottle and accept no substitutes.—Adv.

Two of a Kind.

Being the way these colleges scatter around their degrees is absolutely nauseating. Every Tom, Dick and Harry with a little cheap notoriety can figure on getting one. The whole system is absolutely indefensible. Don't you think so?

Bang—Yes. I didn't get one either.

Important to Mothers.

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA before you give it to your infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fitch. In Use for Over 30 Years. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria.

Entirely Conditional.

He—So you wouldn't marry the best men living?
She—Well, not unless I was sure it would make a better man of him.

Far Worse.

"There is witchery in moonlight."
"And even more diabolical influences in moonshine."
