OAKLAND COUNTY PEOPLE PICNIC

Former Oakland County Residents Hold Picnic in Los

Tuesday night our basket ball teams, (boys and girls) defeated Trenton on their home floor. The boys' score being 30 to 14 in favor of Farmington and the girls' score was 20 to 4 in favor of our girls. Both teams played an exceeding green and the state of the team played a very good game. One thing that helped us win was the crowd of rooters that went along with us.

Last Friday night our teams defeated Northville on their home floor. The boys winning with a 21 to 3 score and girls with a 4 to 11 score. Monday night our boys' team.

The prosperity of Plymouth is reflected in the statement of the Plymouth United Savings Bank, The totals of the bank reach nearly two million dolars. This is a considerable increase over the totals of the last statement shown, and is a sure indication that the business of the bank is steadily growing and prospering. The savings deposits amount to over a million dollars, which is the largest amount ever recorded in the history of Plymouth.—Plymouth Mail.
