Shoes join the ranks of investment fashion for spring and summer with handmade designs from France and Italy at Ciabattino. The Xavier Danand pump (top) is the perfect classic shoe, in white or delicate pink. From Charles Jourdan comes the male (above), with a four-inch heel slide, giving the leg a long, sexy look. From Pierre Cardin comes the canvas boot (right). A drawstring top allows pants to be stuffed into the soft canvas top; or the boot may be pushed down around the ankle and tied for wear with skirts.
