Bridesmaids Wear Rainbow Colors

Five attendants in rainbow-hued gowns preceded Sandra Wilcox to the altar when she spoke her nuptial vows to Gerald Virzi in St. Mary's Catholic Church of Wayne, Sept. 6. The Rev. Raymond Sayers officiated in the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilcox of High Street, Westland. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Virzi of Montan Avenue, Livonia, are the bridegroom's parents. THE BRIDE, given by her father in marriage, wore a colonial style white organza and lace gown and a waterlily headpiece that held a three-tier veil. Her heart-shaped bouquet was white carnations and pink tea roses surrounding a white orchid. Diane Stinson, as maid of honor, wore a hot pink empire gown fashioned of chiffon and trimmed with green velvet leaves. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and multi-color daisies. Cathy Kostyer, sister of the bridegroom, Darlene Eumstead and Diane Pierson wore similar gowns in blue, yellow and lilac for their roles as bridesmaids. Ruthanne Cox, the bride's cousin, was a junior bridesmaid and wore pale aqua. CHARLES PAWLOSKI served the bridegroom as best man. The ushers were Charles Pappas, Fredrick Dupont, John McKinney and the bridegroom's brother, Craig Virzi. Mrs. Wilcox chose an aqua lace gown and Mrs. Virzi wore pink satin. After a reception for 200 guests in the Wayne Ford Civic League, the couple left for a Niagara Falls honeymoon. Both are graduates of Franklin High School and they will live in Plymouth.
