

EXHIBITIONS

SUNDAY, APRIL 16
Kingswood Lower Gallery—Clay vessels by Guy Adamec of Goodrich will be on display in gallery at Kingswood School through May 14. Adamec, who creates what he calls "functional pots," received his master's degree from Cranbrook in 1976. The gallery is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, 888 Cranbrook. Reception for the artist will be at 2-4 p.m. Sunday.

MONDAY, APRIL 17
Bloomfield Township Library—South Oakland Art Association members are showing their work at the library through April 22. It is a juried exhibit. A reception sponsored by the Friends of the Library will be from 7-9 p.m. Monday. Hours are 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Friday and 9:30 to 5:30 p.m. Saturday, 1099 Lone Pine near Telegraph.

CONTINUING EXHIBITS
Showcase Galleries—A new series of 10 etchings by Louise Nevelson, "Essences," will continue through April 23. The images, assembled collages of varying sizes of lace materials, were created directly on the plates. Hours are 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Friday and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday. The gallery is at 26555 Evergreen, Southfield.

Troy Public Library—Two local artists are presently showing their work at the library. Sonia Molnar has a selection of vibrant watercolors. She describes her work as gestural abstractions. She is an award winner and studied at the Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association, Wayne State University and the Center for Creative Studies.

Mildred Louise Pawling, who signs her work "Melouse," has both oils and sculptures on display at the library. She has scenes from the bayous of Louisiana as well as landscapes and florals. Library hours are 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday-Thursday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, 510 W. Big Beaver, Troy.

Alpha Omega Thought Gallery—"New Metaphysical Art" by Howard Weingarden will be shown at this new gallery through April 23. Weingarden's work has been widely exhibited in Michigan and across the country. He has a master's in fine arts from Wayne State University and studied at Detroit Arts and Crafts before it was renamed. The gallery is at 352 N. Woodward.

Detroit Artists Market—Sculpture of Germaine Keller is being featured through April. Her work consists largely of plaster and wood pieces. A graduate of WSU, she presently lives in New York City. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Saturday, 1452 Randolph, Detroit.

Gristein Jewelry and Design—Exhibit of fiber sculptures by Nancy Taylor will continue through May 31. Hours are 10:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Monday-Saturday. The shop is on the lower level of the mall at 280 N. Woodward.

Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association—"Innovations in Paper" is the result of nationwide competition launched by the art association. On display will be paper works by artists from all across the country. Jurors for the competition were Ted Ramsay of Ann Arbor and Kathryn McCardle Lipke. Both are leaders in the art of paper as a medium. The exhibit will run through May 6. Gallery hours are 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday-Saturday, 516 S. Cranbrook Evergreen at Fourteen Mile.

Allen Rubiner Gallery—"New Faces" introduces the work of four new artists, each of whom works in a different medium. Beverly Neumann uses acrylics for her "commentary on a woman's odyssey," and Deborah Hecht shows the world around her in watercolor. Both are from Detroit. Hecht, however, now lives in New York. Elsie Dinsmore Popkin of North Carolina is a figurative artist working in pastel, and Dick Evans, on the faculty of the University of Wisconsin, works imaginative ceramic forms. The show will continue through April 29. The gallery is at 621 S. Washington, Royal Oak.

Donald Morris Gallery—Recent paintings by Lester Johnson will be on display through May 6. Johnson, professor of art at Yale graduate school, is represented in the Hirshhorn, Guggenheim and Cornell University museums as well as other major collections. In this local show, he will have 10 new paintings and six pastels. Gallery hours are 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 105 Townsend.

Gristein Jewelry and Design—Exhibit of fiber sculptures by Nancy Taylor will continue through May 31. Hours are 10:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Monday-Saturday. The shop is on the lower level of the mall at 280 N. Woodward.

Objects & Images Gallery—Appropriately, this Rochester gallery is showing a multi-media exhibit, "Rochester Our Town, Your Town." Artists represented include Judith McNea of Southfield, Rita Skoczen of Rochester, Dale Birchler of Sterling Heights, Anastasia Strichter of Pleasant Ridge, Pat West of Birmingham, Nancy Burroughs of Troy and Wayne Andrew and Charles Gatewood, both of Troy. The exhibit runs through April 28. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. The gallery is at 202 E. Fourth, Rochester.

Susanne Hilberry Gallery—Paintings by Fairfield Porter, who died in 1976, are on display through April 22. Porter's figurative oils and landscapes are a change from the usual offerings of this gallery. Hours are 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 555 S. Woodward.

Robert L. Kidd Associates/Galleries—A new group of wall hangings by Robert Kidd highlight the group show. These new works have moved from weavings to designs to hang on a wall that are three-dimensional in the use of fabrics as the media for these carefully designed abstract statements. Hours are 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Saturday, 107 Townsend. Continues through April.

Ed Gray Gallery—"L'Entourage de Le Cirque Imaginaire," a show of photographs of entertainers and mimics by Blake Simmons of Troy and circus figures by Marie Ferrini, continues through April 27. For this show of puppets on strings, acrobats and clowns done by Ms. Ferrini, the whole gallery takes on a circus atmosphere. Hours are 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, on the lower level of the mall, 280 N. Woodward.
