Jaeger expanding its horizons

Jaeger combines (above) white serge blazer ($200), black gabar-dine pant ($80), stiped Merino wool sweater ($40) and cream dine pant ($30), stiped Merino wool sweater ($40) and cream shirt ($28). (Right) Total look achieved with slik wool linen checked jacket ($190), cotton rustic skirt ($60), slik polyester with low bow tie neck and turn back cuffs ($80), and acrylic V-neck vest with but-ton front box stitch design ($34).

The Doll Hospital & Toy Soldier Shop

3947 12 Mile Rd. • Berkley • Phone 543-3115 (3 Biks. E. of Greenfield • Berkley) MON., WED., FRI. 10-8 TUES., THURS., SAT. 10-5

By RUSTLE SHAND

Jaeger, a London firm long dedicated to the design and manufacture of elegant daytime investment clothing, has expanded its field. At a recent showing of spring and summer designs in its Somerset Mail, Troy store, Jaeger combined its timeless, seasonless classics with floral garden prints and evening chiffons to make a new fashion statement.

"We have extended more into dresses—into late afternoon and night-time for spring-summer 78" said Rodney Jousson, the tall, handsome British president of the firm.

He added, however, that Jaeger is keeping its century-old reputation for well-tallored separates. "Many of our local customers have found they are able to bring in a skirt they bought in our London shop 10 years ago and find a jacket here to match it," he said.

"Investment clothes are doubly important today with the cost of clothes."

PUTTING TOGETHER a wardrobe in this clean-crisp shop is an easy matter. For one thing, they do not have "salespeople" but instead each person on the floor is a trained "lashion coordinator."

The women's clothing stock hangs crisply in open closets, arranged by color on the second level accessing room of British nobility, well-tended by a groper valet. Each piece of clothing seems an impeccable gem.

Naturals, in beiges and grays, play an important loe in putting together the Jaeger look. A new shoulder tab on jackets offers a Irech placement for the softening bright silk scores; play a particularly important role in the man's spring wardrobe. The central feature is the blazer, teamed with a gabardine trouser.

New colors for men include a white linen vest to

The central teature is the biazer, teamed with a glabardine frouver. New colors for men include a white linen vest to be worn with suits and jackets in pale yellow. Uses and bricks. For evening, the navy blazer combines with navy and white flax trouters with the white vest topping a checked shirt.

A NEW COLOR in the Jaeger line for men this year is camel in a three-piece vested gabardine, designed for year-round wear.

OU's non-degree courses listed

The Division of Continuing Education at Oakland University, Rochester, takking registrations for spring term,
which operas the week of April 17.
Nondegree courses range in the second of the course of the course

MIME COURSES, which will be held on Saturday mornings beginning April 22, include two new courses, in clown characterizations and in mask designs. The Mime Ensemble, Michigan's professional performing mime company, now in residence at Oakland University, instructs the courses under the artistic director, Tom Aston.

Home buying and restoration will be the focus of the courses Guidelines for Purchasing a Home and Restoring Old diomes for Pofit and Fun. Background for selecting the right location according to income and needs will be provided in the first course, to be conducted by Jerome A. Nowacki, of Weaver Real Estate, Rochester, on Thursday evenings beginning April 20.

A practical approach to preserving historic homes or adapting older dwellings for modern living will be presented by a builder experienced in restoration, Gustave A. Rener II of crosse Pointe Woods, on Monday evenings beginning April 17.

Personal Financial Planning and Tax Shelters for the Middle Income, courses designed to help save and plan one's financial objectives, will be offered on Mondays beginning April 17, the first from 7-8:30 p.m. and the second from 8:30-10 p.m. Pinancial consultant Kenneth W. Peterson, of Troy, will instruct.

TWO NONDEGREE evening courses. Managing Management Stress and Muscular Relaxation, offer two ways to handle stress. The first two ways to handle stress. The first ourse explores recognizing stress and using it advantageously; the second course helps develop the ability to relax at will the muscles, the sites of tersion.

For course details and registration information, call the continuing education office. 377-3120.

