

Bayh to address Jewish women

Sen. Birch Bayh (D-Ind.) will be the principal speaker at the annual installation luncheon of the National Council of Jewish Women to be held at noon Monday, May 1 in the Michigan Inn, Southfield.

Now serving his third term in the Senate, Sen. Bayh is a member of the judiciary and appropriations committees. It was his work on the former committee that brought him national attention when he led successful fights against the nominations to the U.S. Supreme Court of Clement Haynsworth and C. Harold Carswell.

As chairman of the judiciary subcommittee, Sen. Bayh authored the 25th and 28th Constitutional amendments regarding presidential succession and disability, and the 18-year-old vote.

The pending 27th amendment, the Equal Rights Amendment, is the product of Bayh's work as chairman of the constitutional amendments subcommittee.

In other activities as senator, Bayh has worked to provide adequate funding for education, housing and health care. He promotes campaign reform and privacy legislation.

Program chairwomen for the luncheon are Harriet Frensis of Huntington Woods and Carol Schwartz of Southfield. Among the committee members are Judy Adelman, Carol Bloom and Jan Hauser of Birmingham, and Marilyn Blumberg, Denise Farber, Peggy Frank and Hilary Gitsen of Southfield.

Other members are Marcie Edelman and Sharon Edelman of Franklin, Beverly Gordon and Barbara Kuhl of West Bloomfield and Norma Schwaner of Oak Park.

Volunteers

The Oakland County Volunteer Bureau, a program of the Volunteer Action Center of United Community Services, has weekly listings of agencies needing volunteers. Further information about these agencies and over 200 others that need volunteer services may be obtained from the volunteer bureau, 642-7272.

MUSEUM GUIDES—Volunteers with an interest in history or antiques are needed by the Troy Museum to train as guides. The training provides an opportunity to become acquainted with Oakland County history, to show people through the museum and Caswell House, an early Troy home, and to become familiar with items used by pioneers in home life. The museum is open Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday. The commitment is for one two-hour period a month.

PARENT AIDE VOLUNTEER—Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service is looking for volunteers to visit families on a regular basis to offer support and assistance in times of difficulty. Twenty hours of training are provided in areas of home management, human development, nutrition, communication skills, and child development.

PUBLIC RELATIONS ASSISTANT—Some public relations training and good communication skills are important for the volunteers interested in promoting Common Ground's new practical ecology magazine, "Doing more with Less." The time commitment would be ten hours a week over the next year.
