Tom McKay, executive secretary of the Greater Detroit Bowling Association, has given the last 17 years of his life to the game, and will be honored as Bowling's "Man of the Year" at the annual meeting of the association on May 30.

It is seldom that the association looks to its own ranks for the honors of one of the most prestigious titles within its jurisdiction.

But McKay's work as an executive and his performance on the lanes as captain of the Goebel team that is doing so much for the blind made him the logical candidate.

McKay took over the position of executive secretary following the death of Frank Mittel 17 years ago and has risen to the rank of an ABC director and one of the top average bowlers in the metropolitan area.

THE FIRST of the banquets to honor the all-star league champions is set for this Thursday evening when the Bowlerettes and the Ladies Major league jointly sponsor the annual dinner and coronation ceremonies at the Polish Century Club.

The team champions to be honored are Cora Flieg's Luxury Lanes squad and Penny Behn's Bonanza group.

THERE WERE MANY skeptics at the start of the season who felt that Behn's Bonanza team would not complete the campaign as the only women's team in the men's strongest league.

But the girls have stuck it out—doing better in the men's league than they did in their own circuits. They have compiled a team average of 865—a mark which many men's teams would feel proud to hold. But, alas, they are finishing in last place.

MAZIE KOWALSKI had good reason to be all smiles as the Ladies' Traveling League came to end last week. Her Garden Lanes team won the title following keen competition during most of the campaign.

Bill Montgomery Sr. paced the bowlers in the Moose League with a 647 series that gave him a margin of 34 pins over Ted Chorian, the runner-up.

In the St. Louis league, Frank Koss was the lone bowler to better double-century figures. He rolled a 601 to set the pace, with Rich Buckshaw three pins behind at 598.

THEY ARE SINGING the praises of Barb Hausch at Westland Bowl for her showing in the Monday league. All she did was link counts of 223, 226 and 233 for a 682 and a wide lead over her nearest rivals.

In the Little Caesar's Classic, Dick Kowacki showed his wife, Marge, that she wasn't the only bowler in the family. He found the range for a 280 game and a 946 series. This wasn't high for the night, but it was good for a lot of joshing.

The pace-making role went to Lou Ivanick with a 662 gained on games of 231, 215 and 216. Jerry Lindley, who recently bowled a 300 game, landed third with 639.

On the women's side, Geri Beattie made good use of a 265 game to show the way with a 662.

THE MERRI-BOWL PREP TEAM won the championship of the Livonia Parks & Recreation league by surviving a stirring battle at Clover Lanes.

The members of the team are: Ryan Stanley, Fred Young, Patty Troke, Harry Lionman and David Kostka.

While the preps were gaining the title, George Pernicano was doing some fancy bowling in the Kimberly Oaks league. He opened with a 206, followed with 211, and closed with 248 for 665.

DICK ONUSKO carries only a 175 average in the K-C league at Woodland Lanes, but he went far over that with a 254 game in his last start. And Gordie Kisabeth, who averages 150, did even better.

He went 113 pins over with a 253. THE TEEN CLASSIC at Farmington Lanes always produces some fine bowling by the young element. This week, was no exception when John Tonke showed the way with a 654 on games of 227, 223 and 204. Behind him came Dave Foerster with a 228 in 594. In the Thursday mixed classic, Barb Waling, who rolled a perfect game a year ago, set the pace with a 243 in 578. Next in line came Tim Silt with 652. Kevin Holstrom with 631, and Kevin Hibbs with 625.

Jan Vandervell came back to the winners' circle in the Friday mixed league with a 213 in 594. Alice McComos was next with 226 in 588 and Myrna Hille landed third with a 225 in 586. Mary Alvers had high game of 241.

IT IS RUMORED along the 10-pin front that the Summer Mixed Traveling league inaugurated last year will not be in action this summer.
