The hot-water heater is one of the big energy gulpers, accounting for 15% of the fuel used in the home. A temperature setting of 120°, compared to the usual setting of 150°—will cut your fuel bill by 9%,
