Woman killed in collision

A 26-year-old Westland woman was killed in a five-car collision in Southfield last week. The victim, June Leslie Chavey, was pronounced dead on arrival in Providence Hospital April 20 from injuries received in the accident, according to Southfield police. The accident occurred about 4 p.m. Thursday, April 20 on Twelve Mile, west of Ivanhoe Lane. It involved an eastbound car driven by Gary Johnson, 36, of Royal Oak who, police said, crossed the center lane on Twelve Mile, striking four other vehicles. Johnson's auto struck Ms. Chavey's car head-on, police said. Johnson was treated for a head injury and released. Also involved in the collision were cars driven by Heather Elaine Sprung, 35, of Southfield, Helen Grace Helme, 56, of Berkley, and Steve Stolanik, 51, of Pontiac, according to police. The accident is under investigation. Ms. Chavey's death brings to four the number of traffic fatalities in Southfield so far this year.

Gary Johnson, who was involved in the accident, is carried to a stretcher by an ambulance attendant. Johnson was taken to Providence Hospital where he was treated for minor injuries and released.

Beth Hayeled' opens house

Congregation Shaarey Zedek's Beth Hayeled (nursery and kindergarten) will welcome visitors during the week of May 8, especially parents who are observing nursery schools and kindergarten for fall enrollment. Rosalind Gilson, director, will provide tours of the school, explain its program and introduce its staff from 9-11 a.m. and 1-3 p.m. Beth Hayeled will observe its 30th anniversary this fall. It has pioneered in providing the first religious as well as secular experience away from home for thousands of children. The school provides a varied and creative program with a capable staff and an assortment of equipment and materials to enable children to develop skills and concepts in a fun way. Classes for children 3-5 years of age meet for two, three or five days a week in the morning and five days a week only in the afternoon. The school has an accredited kindergarten and sponsors parent-toddler classes. It is licensed by the State of Michigan. Visitors are welcome to attend the open house week from May 8-12 without prior registration. For more information, call Mrs. Gilson at 357-5844.

Catalina Pools

Dear Homeowner: Catalina Pools is offering, once again, its full line of services and products for the 1978 pool season at reasonable prices. I have been in the pool business for the past fifteen years servicing many satisfied customers in the Oakland County area. As in the past, you have my pledge—all service work done will be in a reliable and honest fashion. Realizing that the increased costs and shortages of energy pose serious problems for ourselves and our county, I have affiliated myself with Solar Systems of California, which offer a complete line of new era products which include solar panels for pools, solar pool blankets, solar systems for domestic hot water and space heat.
