

Ice Skating booster heads for Amateur Hall of Fame

Benjamin Bagdade, a former Farmington resident now living in Southfield, will be inducted into the Amateur Skating Union of the United States Hall of Fame on May 20 during the Union's annual meeting in Illinois. Bagdade has devoted much of his life to the development of competitive skating. As a skater, he won the National Intermediate Championship in 1919, as well as other honors in major events at Saranac Lake, N.Y. At the close of his competitive career, Bagdade turned his attention to other areas in the world of skating. He formed the Michigan Skating Association in the early 1920's, and also founded Detroit's gold and silver skate derbies, which are among the oldest speed skating events in the country.

Bagdade's other accomplishments include serving as president of the Amateur Skating Union for an unprecedented three terms, managing the U.S. speed skating team at the 1948 Olympics in Switzerland, and working as a member of the U.S. Olympic speed skating committee. He served as a referee in the Oslo Winter Olympics, was an official in both the 1956 and 1960 games, and was one of the honored judges at the Munich games in 1976.

Bagdade also spent a great deal of his time helping in the development of young skaters. Among those he devoted his time to were Terry Browne, Lloyd Guenther, and Sheila Young, who won a gold medal in the 1976 Olympics.

Born in Montreal, Canada, Bagdade moved to Saranac, N.Y. when he was 4 years old. He skated throughout his youth there and continued doing so when he moved to Michigan in 1919. He was inducted into the Michigan Amateur Sports Hall of Fame two years ago for the effort he put into the development of various Michigan skating programs.
