

Mrs. James Rich

Laura Jean Dettler and James Douglas Rich were married in a candlelight service conducted by Rev. William Whitledge in St. Paul United Presbyterian Church, in Livonia. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dettler, of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rich of West Bloomfield.

The bride wore the same dress her mother wore for her wedding 28 years ago. The gown of lace over satin now turned to the color of ivory, was fashioned with a round neckline with insert of nylon net and seed pearls. Her long lace sleeves were scalloped at the fingertips, and her diamond necklace was a gift from the groom.

Ava Orner served as maid of honor with bridesmaids Pamela Kalarchek and Marie Rich, a sister of the groom. They were clad in peach and blue colonial-styled gowns and picture hats and carried colonial bouquets.

Stephen Knickerbocker served as best man with ushers Thomas Rich, a brother of the groom, and Brian Dettler, a brother of the bride.

The bride graduated as an interior designer from Brooks College in Long Beach, Cal. The groom attended Ferris State College and is a tennis instructor with Lubbock Country Club in Lubbock, Tex.

The couple received guests at Roma's of Bloomfield, before leaving for Texas where they will make their home.

A land of good things

Fourth graders at St. Fabian Elementary School observe Michigan Week with the culmination of months of research that has resulted in an exhibit called "A Land of Good Things." Susan Porter, (at left) Julie Virgin, Dean Norton and Gilbert Haddad put together a display which graphically summarizes each child's view of Michigan. Highlight of the week for the youth is Hospitality Day, when they host a luncheon, made up of Michigan-grown foods, for guests. (Staff photo)

McPeak honored

Maureen McPeak has been inducted into the Mortar Board, a national honorary society. She is a junior at Central Michigan University. She is the daughter of Eugene and Mary McPeak of Farmington Hills.

Spend five nights on Oahu's Waikiki Beach at the Hilton Hawaiian Village, then relax for three nights in the Coco Palms Resort Hotel on Kauai. Spend three nights at the Royal Lahaina Hotel on Maui and three nights on Hawaii.

Enjoy sight seeing excursions around Honolulu, a boat trip on the Waialua River or a dip into Iao Valley. Don't miss the opportunity to see Waimea Canyon, the Grand Canyon of the Pacific, or visit the lush Haknalei Valley where "South Pacific" was filmed. Seventy five to 80 degree temperatures are waiting for you on the beaches, golf courses and tennis courts. Haleakala's Crater, the worlds largest dormant volcano, is also waiting for you. Slide down Opaekaa Falls on Kauai into the cool stream below and visit Lahaina, a quaint fishing village and ancient whaling center. All this fun and refreshing change from Michigan's November-December climate is yours for only $899 based on double occupancy (single occupancy is an additional $260).

A $25 deposit will secure your place on our tour. Places will be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis.
