Harrison to face Canton in pre-district game

"Canton!—We get another shot at Carton." So said Farmington Harrison coach John Harrington, as he raised his arms in victory after edging Plymouth Satem, 10, in pre-qualifying action of the baseball state tourna-

The victory advanced the Hawks to the pre-district round against Plymouth Canton—a team which defeated Harrison twice in regular season action.

season action.
The pre-district game will be played Saturday starting at noon on the Hawks' diamond. The winner will advance to district action at Southfield on Saturday June 3, and will play the West Bloomfield—Millord Lakeland victor in the first round.

Harrison's two setbacks to the top-ranked league champion Chiefs were by 31 and 41 scores earlier this season in Western St. League section. While Hawk cosed to Chief and the part of the control of th always tough playing someone three times. We're going back to the funda-mertals this week and hope we can beat them."

Both Crissey and Harrington feel the game will be similar to the previous contests—low scoring affairs with pitching and defense dominating the setton.

"It's hard to play Canton if you get behind early because they are so good defensively," the Hawk coach said.

pitched so superbly against Salem last Saturday, would start against the Chiefs. Canton has beaten both Recker and Brett Homovec in the two pre-vious games. Recker threw a two-fit-ter against. Salem enroute to his sixth victory against one defeat.

Crissey said he was undecided about his starter but he has three excellent hurlers to choose from in Doug Smith, Scott Dawson and Brian James. Dawson and Smith both beat Harrison this season, but it is James' turn to hurl in the rotation.
