

In The Pocket

Almost 40 years ago—when Johnny Smith was mayor of the City of Detroit—the all star bowlers decided to do something different for charity. Meeting at the old Chene Trombly Recreation on Detroit's east side, they decided to stage a challenge match between two teams from their ranks and draw for places on the order of bowling.

One team took the name of Johnny Smith's Old Times and the other represented Johnny Paulus' Chene Trombly.

And the charity?

They decided to canvas the neighborhoods and charge admission with all proceeds going to the Capuchin Fathers to help support their program of feeding the unfortunate at the soup kitchen on Mt. Elliott.

It was a success from the start, and thousands of dollars have been raised through the years. It is now the oldest charity event engaged in by the metropolitan bowlers.

Trombly the event was shifted to Mt. Elliott Recreation and now is held at Van Dyke Recreation.

This year's event is scheduled June 3 and all of the stars will be there to continue an old tradition.

THE YOUNG BOWLERS never cease to amaze even the old timers.

This week, Cathy Zych, a 16-year-old, bowling in the junior league at Westland Bowl, turned in the fourth highest series in the 14-year history of the establishment.

Though she carries only a 133 average, she linked games of 268, 208 and 204 for a 680. She has been bowling in the junior league for six years and now is loosed upon as one of the potential all-stars.

ANN SETLOCK, day manager at Garden Lanes and a former bowling queen, claims the best in Miami was a detriment to the Detroiters who recently bowled in the Women's International Bowling Congress tournament.

"The girls were not used to that kind of heat at this time of year and it showed in their performances."

Ann's Miss Lapeer team paced the Detroit delegation with a 2734, of which she contributed a 562. Dorothy Lisowski paced the team with a 574.

FIGURES RECENTLY released by the American Bowling Congress, show that Michigan topped the entries with 325 teams which are certain to gain a lion's share of the prize money when the final figures are announced.

ALTHOUGH HE BOWLED only 148 in his final game, J.W. Johnson, of Saginaw, beat out Bob Garrett for the monthly Michigan Majors tournament title at Eastland Lanes. He is the first black ever to win the event.

BERTHA TARRUS was on her way to one of the best series of her bowling career at Westland Bowl last week only to find that the rarified atmosphere of high scoring was too much for her. After starting with games of 215 and 247, she slipped to a 159 and had to be content with a 821 series.

BARBARA JOE and JOHN STEFANSKI won the titles in the King and Queens tournament that closed Sunday night at Merri-Bowl.

Barbara's winning count was a 691 and it gave her a 12-pin margin over Pat Kemp with Karen Guse in third place with 658.

In the King division, Stefanski fired a 685, which was 11 pins better than Jack Porter. Chester Romatowski landed third with a 666.

FRED VITALI, one of the top scorers in the winter all star leagues, moved to a new front during the week and paced the field in the men's trio competition at Bel-Aire Lanes with a 683.

North girls finish last in NSL

First-place finishes in three individual events and victories in two of the three relays enabled Westland Junior Glenn to nip Livonia Franklin by 2½ points for the championship last week at the Northwest Suburban League girls' track meet.

The Rockets secured 69½ points, Franklin 67, Redford Thurston 51½, Garden City East 23 and North Farmington three. Every team except North had at least one league title.

Glenn's Cheryl Williams leaped 17 feet 7¼ inches to win the long jump. Kathy McDougall thundered to victory in the 100-yard dash with a time of 11.4 seconds and Jean Burt finished first in the 220-yard dash with a clocking of 26.3 seconds.

Williams' and McDougall's efforts set new conference records.

The Rockets won the 800-yard relay in 1:45.5 with the quartet of Williams, McDougall, Burt and Cheryl Stiehl and the 440-yard relay in 50.6 seconds with the foursome of Burt, Williams, McDougall and Lori Pfeiffer.

The 400-yard clocking also broke the existing league record.

"I wasn't surprised that we won. The only surprise was the close score," said Glenn coach Cheryl Caughey. "We didn't think they'd be that close."

Franklin, whose only conference dual loss this season came from the Rockets, finished first in five events at the league festival.

Nadia Award set a new conference record in the shot put with a throw of 39 feet 10 inches and also won the discus with a heave of 106 feet three inches.

Judy Rusecek negotiated the hurdles in 16.1 seconds, Sue Patton triumphed in the 440-yard run in 1:02.2 and LeAnne Horie won the mile with a time of 5:43.8.

Jean Ashley of Redford Thurston set a new league record in the high jump by clearing five feet four inches and teammate Liz Woodley proved to be the best two miler with a run of 12:17.3.

The Eagles also won the mile relay in 4:34, the only team to reap points in that event.

Cindy Leach, probably Garden City East's best runner all season long, crossed first in the 800-yard run with a time of 2:27.7.
