

Two of the "Characters on Farmington Road," are Ken Stern (left) and Kristen Yessayan. The youngsters created their own characters and costumes.

Youngsters form character parade

On June 27, youngsters from 5 to 14 years begin a creative drama class that leads up to a parade of "Characters on Farmington Road." Along the way they will learn how to create a character, and take the character from creation to a play production through instruction in acting, stage direction, costumes, makeup and scenery, voice and body control.

Moga takes degree

John Paul Moga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Traian Moga, of Farmington Hills, received the Doctor of Osteopathy (D.O.) degree during commencement exercises at the Kirsville College of Osteopathic Medicine in Kirsville, Mo. He begins his internship at Garden City Hospital, in Garden City, Mich., next month.

Moga received his premedical education at Oakland University. While attending the osteopathic college, he was active in the Atlas Club, a social fraternity.

MICHIGAN STATE CIRCLE, DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA, has elected Mrs. William Kuida, of Franklin Village, as its president. The election was held during the circle's 49th state convention in the Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island.

Other officers who will serve for the coming term are Mrs. Edward Schmidlin, Mrs. Charles Renaud, and Mrs. Kenneth Nelson.

METROPOLITAN DETROIT BNAI BRITH COUNCIL has elected Ralph Miller as president for the coming term. The installation of officers took place this week in Farmington Hills' Congregation Adat Shalom.

Miller will serve with officers Floyd Bornstein, David Jaffa, Arnold Michlin, Joel Garfield, Henry Gutter and Irwin Alpern.

Maurice Rosender took a special presentation from the Bnai Brith Foundation. Certificates of merit went to Sandy Friedman, Ben Lusky, and Charles and Diana Blauer.

Awards for the founding of new Bnai Brith Lodges were given to David Bitter and Milton Weinstein.

CHILD BIRTH WITHOUT PAIN EDUCATION ASSOCIATION holds open house from 7-8 p.m. Friday, June 23, at its new location, 17191 James Couzens, Detroit.

THE GATHERING PLACE is taking reservations now for a trip to Flint and a visit to Cross Road Village. Transportation, a ride on the Huckleberry train and lunch at Walli's are included in the $14.50 package price.

The Gathering Place, a drop in center for seniors, is located in Mercy Center, Eleven Mile, east of Middlebelt.

All seniors are invited to participate in the center's cards games, exercise classes, square dancing and folk dancing, swim sessions, bingo and shuffleboard. Hot lunches are served every noon.

Something new at The Gather Place is a five-piece band that plays every Friday from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

A listing of all events is given monthly in The Senior Messenger, which is available at The Gathering Place without charge.

Rita Bell has been elected to serve her second term as president of the Women's Advertising Club of Detroit. Her vice-president for the 1978-79 term will be Sue Loda, regional sales manager for Storer Broadcasting, WJBK-TV.
