For the young at heart

The Art of Clowning is for the young and the young at heart as taught by Irvin Romig, known to his audiences as Ricky the Clown. First day of classes for aspiring clowns in the Farmington area is Tuesday in Farmington Community Center. After six sessions, the class members don their clown costumes and cavort with Ricky in the Fourth of July parade. Registrations for the class are being taken now by calling the center at 477-8404.

Teaching engineer retires from LIT

Dr. William Mikulas, of Farmington, is retiring after serving nine years as a professor of mechanical engineering at Lawrence Institute of Technology.

After attending the college's 46th annual commencement on June 4, he left for Iran where he will be a consultant in the design and manufacture of bome appliances. He and his wife, Muriel, will visit Spain later this summer

He is former president of the Michigan section of the American Society of Metals and is a member of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineers and the Engineering Society of Detroit.
