Progressive Patient Care Plus ... We're Doing Some Innovative Things in . . . Nurse Career Care. We will be in Farmington Hills June 30th to tell

Most motre. Most major university hospitals offer a wide range of specialties. At the University of Michigan, we've gone a few strides further. We have a broad range of special units . . . plus a variety of career parks, and opportunities for individual expression and involvement in the decision making process. For example: a decentralized rursting administration allows each unit to run independently. There are dual promotion paths, clinical and administrative, with a unique Clinical Careers badder.

These unique opportunities are now available:

EDUCATIONAL COORDINATOR: Pediatrics. HEAD NURSE/ASSISTANT HEAD NURSE. Medical ICU, Psychiatry. STAFF RNS - Mott
Childrina Hospitals, Burn Center, Psychiatry, Intensive Care Unit, Med/
Surg Specialities, Diabetes Center.

Surg Specialities, Diabetes Center.

Representatives of U of M will be in Farmington Hills on June 30th to discuss details of the above positions. Pat Richards and Oriole McLean will be often 17th Botsford Inn, 28000 Grand River, Farmington Hills from 1000 a.m. to 600 p.m. to answer questions. Phone calls accepted during that time at 4744800. Light refreshments will be served.
