

Club Circuit

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS Brohead Farmington Hills Auxiliary 229 members were among the first to register for the 38th annual state convention that took place late last month.

Color guards Alice Tripp and Irene Johnson served as the flag and banner persons during the convention's "Aisle of Honor."

Members from the local post who took part in the convention parade were Irene Rodebaugh, Fran Bouman, Shirley Memmen, Ms. Tripp and Ms. Johnson.

EASTER SEAL SOCIETY FOR

CRIPPLED CHILDREN AND ADULTS, have scheduled its 1978 Michigan Convention for Oct. 20-22 in Troy's Somerset Inn. The awards banquet will be in the Pontiac Silverdome. Highlight of the three-day program will be a day-long seminar on the rights of the physically handicapped. Reference materials will be taken from "Rights and Information Handbook for Persons with Handicaps in Michigan."

Planning is under way now for the 1979 Easter Seal Telethon, scheduled for March 24-25. The 1978 Tri-County Easter Seal Telethon raised an all-time high of $180,682.

Persons who wish to join in next spring's telethon are asked to contact James Kinville, at 338-9626.

WELCOME WAGON CLUB, of Farmington, hosts a summer morning coffee beginning at 10 a.m. July 11 in the home of Terry Leland, 26714 Greythorne Trail. The address is in Kimberley Subdivision, near Eleven Mile and Middlebelt.

The event is open to all persons who have lived in Farmington or Farmington Hills for less than one year. Interested persons are asked to call beforehand, to Sue Nunziato, 474-5524.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S CLUB meet at noon, July 13, for a "Young at Heart Luncheon" in Mayflower Meeting House, on Main and Ann Arbor Trail, in Plymouth.

All meetings of the group are open to all church women in all surrounding areas. Reservations for lunch and babysitting are necessary by calling Jo Cone, 477-3825.

Guests are also welcome to invite a teenager for a fashion show given by Young Sophisticates, of Plymouth, following lunch.

The program will be given by a Farmington Hills mother and daughter team: Marilyn Missildine and Darlene Missildine.

Marchers invited
