

Accident injures 2

Two women were injured Tuesday in a collision at Eleven Mile and Lahser in Southfield.
 One of the drivers failed to obey the traffic signal, according to Southfield police, but it hasn't been determined which one was at fault. The accident remains under investigation.
 Involved in the 3:45 a.m. collision were Leslie Jablonski, 31, of Southfield who was driving south on Lahser, Mary Grizzel, 52, of Southfield who was northbound on Lahser and her passenger, Beatrice Spear, 70, of Lakeland, Fla.
 Mrs. Grizzel and Mrs. Spear were injured and taken to Providence Hospital.

"Finally, I've found a store that'll help me match my equipment to my brand of cycling."

"My sport is cycling. It can be as easy or tough as I choose to make it, 'cause I compete against myself...and I can be a pretty tough opponent. I know I need good equipment. Like my quality Raleigh bicycle. But you know, I never realized there were so many different types of bicycles until I visited Bike & Sport. My salesman showed me the importance of the right size and weight bicycle and the right type of accessories for my kind of cycling. It turns out there's a lot more to selecting a new bicycle than picking your favorite color (although Raleigh sure has some gorgeous colors). And Bike & Sport has a great Service Department to keep my bike in perfect shape. So I can get the real pros at Bike & Sport."
