

Pet show is scheduled

For the 11th consecutive year, the Farmington Founders Festival will feature a pet show in which prizes will be awarded in 11 categories.

The fattest, most unusual, ugliest, most talented, and most articulate pets will win trophies currently on display at Pets 'N Particulars, 2220 Mooney.

Other categories in which prizes will be awarded include: the pet with the waggiest tail; the pet with the bushiest tail; twin clans (most evenly matched); smallest pet disallowing ants and insects; most original costume for pet and owner; and a special class for the shabbiest, shaggiest, grubbliest pet.

Entry forms must be submitted by noon July 28, to Pets 'N Particulars. Entry forms are available from Farmington Plaza Merchants, Pets 'N Particulars and the Farmington Chamber of Commerce. The pet show will begin at 3 p.m. July 28 in the plaza shopping center.

EACH CONTESTANT may enter

Farmington man named Manpower manager

Farmington Hills resident Jack D. Ellison recently was appointed manager of Manpower Training for Hygrade Food Products Corp.

As manager, Ellison will be responsible for Manpower training and development activities at Hygrade.

only one category in the show, however a friend or another member of the family may enter the same pet in a different category, using separate entry forms. Contestants must be 14 years old or younger. Contestants must keep pets on a leash or in proper containers at all times, and contestants must be ready to enter the show ring when categories are announced.

Trophies will be awarded for first, second and third place winners in each category. The winner of the shaggiest, shabbiest, grubbliest pet category will receive a free haircut and both compliments of the Pets 'N Particulars staff. All contestants will receive a certificate of participation for entering their pets in the contest.

Madonna to sponsor information day

Madonna College in Livonia will sponsor an information day at 2 p.m. July 23. Interested students of all ages and their families are invited to attend the meeting, tour the campus and talk with admissions counselors.

Some programs on tap during the day include the allied health professions such as medical, dietetic and radiologic technologies; business administration; criminal justice; nursing; and teacher education.

Madonna is located at the corner of Schoolcraft and Levan in Livonia. For more information call 591-6334 or 591-6335.

Jacks earns military prize

Cpl. Glenn A. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Jackson of Farmington, recently received an honor from Howe Military School.

Jackson, a senior, received the Father Wheatley Memorial Silver Medal for second best drilled cadet at commencement exercises. Howe is located in Howe, Ind.

Ms. Kuzinski honored

Teresa Kuzinski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kuzinski of Farmington, was named to the academic achievement list at Olivet College for the spring term.

Ms. Kuzinski is a senior majoring in vocal music at Olivet.
