

The lively needle

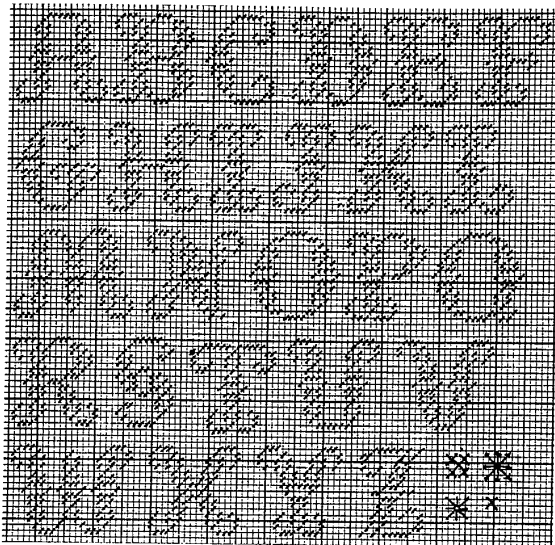

ABCs of stitching

By MARY KAY DAVIS

Here's the alphabet that I promised you last week. It comes from an inexpensive little book that I highly recommend if you're interested in more alphabets. "A Handbook of Lettering for Stitchers" by Svensas should be available at needlework shops.

This alphabet is 15 threads tall. On 14 gauge canvas, the letters will be one inch high when worked as diagrammed.

If you want larger letters, substitute a cross stitch over two canvas threads for each tent stitch diagrammed. Cross stitched letters will be two inches tall.
