

'Mattress' brightens showtime

Due to a mechanical error, only the first half of the following review appeared in Thursday's paper.

By ETHEL SIMMONS

Surely one of the better bargains in diner theater is the current production of "Once Upon a Mattress" at the Barn Steer in Royal Oak.

It's a fresh, song-filled musical delight, preceded by a hearty steak or stuffed flounder sit-down dinner.

Nancy Gurwin, producer of the Diner Playhouse, stars as Princess Winifred, otherwise known as Fred. Ms. Gurwin is a blonde bombshell who looks like she arrived out of the present, to spoof the characters in this fairy tale of the past.

As a matter of fact, she does arrive somewhat impromptu. Other candidates for the prince's hand in marriage have been very proper princesses.

Fred is a princess, too, but she makes her entrance by swimming the moat and showing up dripping wet. Her short-cropped hair and long raspberry gown do dry out, an Winifred prepares to take the test devised by the queen.

THE ENTIRE CAST is lively. Especially good performances are turned in by Fred Buchalter, who is the low-key but revved-up Prince Dauntless, and Joyce Schultheiss as the brazen Queen Aggravain (just like her name).

Prince Dauntless is mistaken and slight of build. He looks meek and mild, and Winifred is a bold contrast whom he instantly adores.

Queen Aggravain is one of those overbearing mothers who think no one is good enough for her son, especially Winifred. She devises a sensibility test, where 20 mattresses are piled up for a night's sleep; if Winifred is a true princess she will pass the test by being able to feel and complain about a pea placed under the bottom mattress.

All the voices in the cast are pleasant on the ears. Lady Larken (Betsy Baker), who will become the princess' lady-in-waiting, and Sir Harry (Eric Jones) are well-paired on the ballad "In a Little While."

The show romps along with many sprightly musical numbers. Outstanding among these are Princess Winifred's early "I'm a Shy," in which she bounds around and belts out an explanation of how shy she really is.

THERE'S A CUTE comic number shared by King Sorditus (Donald S. Merkin), the Minstrel (Richard Street) and the Jester (Jeffrey Dreisbach) called "The Minstrel, the Jester and I."

Review

Act I ends with an exhaustive and amusing dance called "The Spanish Panic," which leaves everyone on stage more tired than the princess they are trying to tire out.

It's Nancy Gurwin's show all the way, and in Act II, she has another evocative number called "Happily Ever After" where she compares her fate to that of other heroines such as Snow White.

The Jester has a solo dance routine "Very Soft Shoes," handled nicely, and the Nightingale (Stacey White) croons an unbelievable lullaby that has Winifred tossing and turning hilariously on her lumpy bed.

The entire production, directed by Edgar A. Guest III, bears his solid touch. It is fast-moving and keyed for lots of laughs, with continuous comic business. The audience responded enthusiastically.

PRODUCER GURWIN can be complimented for the over-all high professional quality of this dinner theater show. The costumes are varied and colorful; the many parts are well cast; the simple set has a charming sky and moon; and the 20 assorted mattresses are stacked up with zany care.

A small orchestra discreetly backs the show; Barbara Anne Gowan on piano, Chris Murrell on electric bass, guitar, and Troy Frever on percussion. "Once Upon a Mattress," based on the fairy tale "The Princess and the Pea," was a Broadway hit starring comedienne Carol Burnett. Although the play has been presented on TV, the show isn't one that's been done to death.

This is not a weighty show, and the humor is just for fun. But the mood is good-spirited, and the songs and dances are just the stuff that fairy tales are made of.

The show and dinner are offered Friday-Sunday evenings on the lower level of the Barn Steer restaurant (formerly Alvaro's). Steaks are cooked to order, and mine was just right and juicy. The big potato was flavorful and salad was plentiful. Cocktails are available extra; waitress service is provided throughout.

Only thing that needs perking up is the banquet room itself. This setting could use a few imaginative touches, to match the magic of the theatrical production.

The Movies

Movie-goers pant in anticipation of 'Pink Panther'

There is a certain excitement of anticipation in the air when the house lights dim and cartoon characters battle one another as the titles announce "Revenge of the Pink Panther" (PG), fifth in the series of Panther movies.

The anticipation is rewarded by the movie's faithful adherence to the formula that has entertained audiences and enriched its creators. Once again Peter Sellers re-creates that accident-prone, nasal-voiced, imbecilic detective, Chief Inspector Clouseau, by a combination of brainlessness and lunatic luck, always manages to avoid every fiendish plot to annihilate him.

He not only survives, but to the chagrin of every rational police officer and frustrated villain, he catches the crooks. In this case the top crook is Douvier (Robert Webber), known as "the French connection." He's head of the biggest dope smuggling ring in France.

TO EFFECT THIS capture, Clouseau resorts to one of his favorite ploys, the use of inventive, if absurd, disguises. In "Revenge" he zips his way in and out of a sizeable wardrobe. The costumes run the gamut from Toulouse-Lautrec to a Swedish herring fisherman to a Chinese Mandarin.

Sellers' discipline and aplomb are remarkable. It's difficult to imagine how anyone can deliver Clouseau's lines without cracking up—as, for example, when he fumbles for change while in his Toulouse-Lautrec guise and apologizes, "Sorry, I'm a little short today."

In contrast to Clouseau's calm stupidity is the hysterical character of Inspector Dreyfus. Herbert Ross is back as the paranoid officer who was literally driven crazy by Clouseau.

Burt Kwouk, another "Panther" regular, returns as the tenacious Cato. Cato, Clouseau's servant, has the comical knack of challenging his employer's self-defense skills at the most inopportune times.

For romantic interest, Dyan Cannon is a perky and attractive Simone, the cast-off mistress of Douvier, and statuesque Valerie Leon makes a brief but spectacular appearance as Tanya, a sexy lady with a whip.

"REVENGE OF the Pink Panther" displays the high standards of professionalism that have distinguished this comic series created by Blake Edwards.

Moreover, it launches its laughs with greater ease and less of the frenetic, sledgehammer gags that occasionally became irritating in "The Pink Panther Strikes Again."

"Revenge" is superb Sellers and very good "Panther."

A rock 'n' roll original

Gary Busey stars in the title role of "The Buddy Holly Story," a motion picture based on the brief but brilliant career of one of the pioneer innovators of rock 'n' roll. The Columbia Pictures release features 12 of Holly's original song hits, performed in the film by Busey.

Glimpses

NEW RELEASES

BAD NEWS BEARS GO TO JAPAN (PG). Scrappy action with the Bears, their scheming agent Tony Curtis and a Japanese wrestler, not to mention the ball game.

CAPRICORN ONE (PG). Hoax about a space shot is the gimmick in this flick with lots of action and lots of loopholes.

THE CHEAP DEATH (PG). Peter Falk and terrific cast click in Neil Simon's comic take off on the Bogart movies of the '40s.

COMING HOME (R). Powerful story of Vietnam war with Jane Fonda as officer's wife who falls in love with disabled vet (John Voight).

CONVOY (PG). Kris Kristofferson leads convoy of angry truckers in movie expanded from hit record.

DAMNED: OMEN II (R). The nasty kid from "The Omen" is now 13 and he's back to kill more people as the world heads for Armageddon.

THE DRIVER (R). Explores the state of the professional getaway driver (Ryan O'Neal) and the detective (Bruce Dern) who hunts him.

THE END (R). Black comedy about misadventures of an about-to-die guy. Burt Reynolds and Dom De Luise star.

F.I.S.T. (PG). Sylvester Stallone as union organizer in film that spans decades from early struggle and idealism to national strength and corruption.

FULL PLAY (PG). A romantic comedy-thriller with a goodly number of laughs albeit many of them are "borrowed" from other films.

GREASE (PG). Broadway musical about the funky '50s is translated to film with John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John.

HARPER VALLEY PTA (PG). You heard the song (in the '60s), now see the movie as Barbara Eden and Nanette Fabray throw the hypocrites.

HEAVEN CAN WAIT (PG). Warren Beatty's successful and distinctive remake of humorous fantasy, "Here Comes Mr. Jordan." Football player goes to heaven and returns to earth as business tycoon. Fine performances.

INTERNATIONAL VELVET (PG). Sequel to "National Velvet" (1944). The faces are new and the social relationships contemporary, but the story is an old favorite comprised of a girl, a horse and a race.

JAWS 2 (PG). Unimaginative recap of original "Jaws" as another shark with a case of overbite and a taste for teens terrorizes beach resort.

REVENGE OF THE PINK PANTHER (PG). Peter Sellers is superb as the idiotic but successful Chief Inspector Clouseau. A fine addition to the "Panther" series.

SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER (R). John Travolta of Kotter's sweat-hug is the main man in film with plenty of disco action.

THE SWARM (PG). Killer bees wing and sting their way into the United States and assault the city of Houston. Movie by the dean of disasters, Irwin Allen.

AN UNMARRIED WOMAN (R). Jill Clayburgh in top form as woman who picks up the pieces after her husband leaves her, then finds there's more to life than Scotch tape. Written and directed by Paul Mazursky.
