

Colleges list local grads

Six Southfield residents are among recent college graduates.

Stefan L. Feldman was awarded a Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degree in May commencement exercises at Illinois College of Podiatric Medicine, Chicago.

Feldman graduated cum laude from the four-year medical college. He's a member of the Durlacher Honor Society and was vice president of Kappa Tau Epsilon fraternity.

In Northern Michigan University's August commencement ceremonies, Marylou Bennet received a degree in nursing. Rosalyn Feldman earned a nursing degree and Timothy Hamill graduated with a degree in mass communications.

Chacona Winters Bolling graduated with an M.A. degree from Ohio State University in spring quarter exercises in June.

Yoga classes offered here

Yoga classes, taught by Keshava Kronish, will begin Monday, Aug. 21 at Northwest Unitarian Universalist Church, 2225 Northwestern Highway in Southfield.

Kronish will offer the teachings of B.K.S. Iyengar, master scientist of Yoga and author of "Light on Yoga." He will use tools developed by Iyengar at his Hath Yoga Institute in India.

Classes will include intermediates, beginners and creative cooking, and will continue to Aug. 25. Participants should bring a mat, wear footless leotards or hose, bring a belt, washcloth and towel.

Polak's a grad

Stanley Walter Polak of Farmington Hills received a master's degree in taxation in April from Walsh College in Troy. He was one of 57 people who received either bachelor or master degrees.

Drum corps

The top 12 drum and bugle corps from the U.S. and Canada will compete for the title championship at the seventh annual "Drum Corps International Championship." The 1978 finals will be seen live from Mile High Stadium in Denver, Colo., at 9 p.m. Friday, Aug. 18, on Channel 56. Corps members, ranging in age from 12 to 21, are judged on marching and split-second maneuvering, drumming and bugling and overall general effect.
