

Steve Pichan does folk and upbeat songs.

Folk, popular, oldies on tap at Grate Steak

Winston's in Win Schuler's the Grate Steak, Rochester, presents two up and coming musical acts in August.

Steve Pichan performs his varied collection of folk and upbeat contemporary numbers Thursdays-Saturdays, through Aug. 28, 9 p.m.-1 a.m.

Singer-musician Judy Powers will entertain with her repertoire of today's favorites and the best of the oldies on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, through Aug. 30, 9 p.m.-1 a.m.

A pop-folk singer, Ms. Powers has performed at the Grand Hotel on Mackinaw Island, Monk's Celler in West Bloomfield and the Bistro in Troy, among many other Michigan spots.

Winston's feature a California motif with extensive greenery, butcher block and modern works of art. There is no cover charge, no minimum.

The lounge is open Monday-Thursday until 1 a.m., Friday-Saturday evenings until 2 p.m. and Sundays until midnight.

Sweet Adelines offer vaudeville hit tunes

The S.O.C. (South Oakland County) Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc. is currently performing a program of vaudeville numbers plus selections from their "Hats Off to Oklahoma!" stage show for hospitals, nursing homes, fraternal organizations, churches and community events.

The 50-member women's barbershop group, directed by Jacki Kaye of Farmington Hills, is preparing special holiday numbers to be included in its performance repertoire during the winter season.

The motto of Sweet Adelines, Inc., an international nonprofit organization, is "Harmonize the World."

Interested women who enjoy singing may join the S.O.C. Chapter members at rehearsals at 8 p.m. every Tuesday at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 2299 W. Twelve Mile near Coolidge in Berkley.

Call Carol Johnson at 541-5259 for membership information or Alice Vial at 538-6426 for performance information.

Black Sheep continues 4 shows in repertoire

The Black Sheep Repertory Theatre is running its four-show repertoire Wednesday-Sunday. This is the second-to-last week of the summer 1978 season.

The "old time" musical melodrama "Love Rides the Rails" is playing Wednesday and Sunday. This show has been seen by hundreds of theatergoers this summer. Boasting the dastardly villain and cheering the hero is all part of the fun.

On Thursday, the bawdy musical "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" is performed. This popular musical tells about a cunning Roman slave who will use any humorous antics to gain his freedom.

On Friday there is the touching, sentimental musical by the authors of the "Fantasticks" and "I Do! I Do!" This is a story of marriage, sometimes brassy and bold, sometimes soft and touching.

On Saturday the comedy "Barefoot in the Park" is playing. This classic Neil Simon comedy takes two newlyweds through the first few hilarious days of adjusting to married life. The hit was directed by David Regal, artistic director of the University of Detroit theater department.

Tickets are available by calling 428-9287. The Black Sheep Repertory Theatre is located 25 miles southwest of Ann Arbor, off M-52 at 104 E. Main.
