Clarification

The face behind the mouse mask in the Founders Festival parade was Leslie Clark, a volunteer for the Farmington Area Branch of the American Cancer Society.

"She put on that hot costume on a very hot day to help us publicize our chapter and I want her to get credit for that," said Farmington City Councilman Warren Buckler.

Buckler was on the group's board of directors. Ms. Clark is his secretary.

Torch Drive grants aid summer programs

The YMCA was able to operate 11 special summer programs through 10 branches for more than 1,200 children in 1977 with a special United Foundation Torch Drive grant allocated by United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit.

Arrangements taught here

Van Askounes combines a variety of plant materials to come up with some unusual and one-of-a-kind accessories and decorations. She will share her know-how in a five-session workshop that begins Sept. 25 in Farmington Community Center. Registrations are necessary, and will be taken by calling the center at 477-8404.

Truitt-Himmelsbach

Mr. and Mrs. James Truitt of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter Jan to John Himmelsbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Himmelsbach of Pontiac.

The bride-to-be and her fiancé are both graduates of Mercy College in Detroit.

An October wedding is planned.

Bundoff-Young

Theresa Bundoff and Thomas Young were wed in Clarenceville United Methodist Church by Rev. Gerald H. Fisher. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bundoff, of Walled Lake, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Durcy Young of Wixom.

The bride was attended by Deborah Bundoff, Denise Bundoff and Sheryl Sessions, along with flowergirl Michelle Miller. Donald Miller served as best man with ushers James E. Bundoff and James M. Bundoff. Ring bearer James Van Fleet, Jr., carried a pillow with two rings for the ceremony.

The blue and white color theme was carried out at the reception hosted by the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Bundoff, of Plymouth, in the UAW-CIO Hall in Livonia.

The bride graduated as a medical assistant from Oakland Community College and will resume her studies in the medical field this fall.

The groom is owner and manager of Young's Advanced Vehicles.

The couple will make their home in Farmington Hills.

Jive jumpin'

Penguins are the only birds that can porpoise, or leap clear out of the water and back in again. Their flippers are propelled by powerful pectoral muscles, which enable them to reach speeds of 15 m.p.h.

A granny packs Miss J off to school with warmest wishes.

Ever the favorite, a soft granny gown of cotton flannelette with white eyelet lace trimming traditional, fresh pastel prints. Carefree in S-M-L sizes, $14.
