

Box full of mischief

BARTERING IS GOOD BUSINESS

Already over 10,000 U.S. businessmen are reaping its benefits

Bartering is back and coming on strong, thanks to the Michigan Trade Exchange — member of the International Trade Exchange — by adding a new twist to the time-proven system of trade. What we do is bring you more business on a continuing basis, increase your profits, conserve your cash flow and help cut your overhead.

New concept

While old-time bartering was based on one person trading with another, the Michigan Trade Exchange now serves as a trading clearing house locally, nationally and even internationally. Already in excess of 10,000 business owners, in 75 cities, are enjoying the benefits of membership in our trade exchange. A computerized accounting system enables us to handle all transactions within the exchange.

Increase your present business

As a member of the Michigan Trade Exchange we will generate and send you more business on a continuing basis. It's like free advertising.

How it works

Our members have cash invested in their inventory. We give them the opportunity to make that inventory work for them as though it were cash. When members trade for goods or services they need at their prevailing retail price, their profit margin is literally inverted and becomes a discount on things they buy through the exchange.

Do it now

Give us a call at 574-1850 and allow one of our Account Executives to explain all the benefits of membership in the Michigan Trade Exchange. It will cost you nothing to find out how the Michigan Trade Exchange can mean good business for you.
