

Powerful Brother Rice belts Andover, 26-6

By JOHN BOZZO

A spirited Bloomfield Hills Andover team failed to upend defending Class A state football champions Brother Rice, Saturday at Birmingham Groves High School.

Rice extended the longest existing winning streak in the state to 15 consecutive games by beating Andover 26-6, in the nonleague opener for both schools.

Everyone's all-state quarterback, Jon English, threw for three touchdowns and ran for another Rice score. He finished the game 16 of 16 for 138 yards passing. English also rushed for 49 yards in nine carries.

Rice's offensive attack showed more balance this season as the Warriors also gained 200 yards rushing. John Baranska led the ball carriers with 129 yards in 19 carries.

"I'm happy we won," said an elated Brother Rice coach Al Francasa. "Give Andover credit, they were really prepared."

A golden opportunity to score first and put Rice in a come-from-behind position, slipped through Andover's fingers.

AFTER RECEIVING the opening kickoff, Andover quarterback Ken Baer completed two passes, but the Barons were forced into a punting situation after four plays.

Baer's punt was fumbled by a Rice player, Andover's Mark Dion pounced on the loose ball, giving the Barons first down at Rice's 20 yard line.

Runs by Baer and Tom Kalahar brought Andover to the Rice nine yard line. Facing a fourth and one situation, Baer tossed a pass into the end zone. Rice's Marty Martinez, starting wide receiver, who was playing some defense in place of an ill player, tipped the ball away from the intended receiver.

Rice, however, capitalized on an Andover fumble to score its first touchdown. Steve Kaiser's tackle knocked the ball loose where Jim Beauregard recovered for Rice at Andover's 37 yard line.

Four plays later, English threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to Don Piotrowski. Brian Swanson's extra point kick made the score 7-0 at halftime.

Rice opened the second half with a 65-yard scoring drive in 11 plays. English capped the series with a two-yard touchdown plunge. Swanson missed the ensuing extra point kick.

Marching 72 yards in seven plays, Andover scored its first touchdown, which whittled the margin to 13-6. Baer plunged one yard for the score, but Rice's Colin Haffey blocked the extra point kick.

Runs of 17 and 43 yards by Kirk Harris and Kalahar respectively, set up the Andover score.

dashed all Andover comeback hopes with an 11-yard scoring toss to Piotrowski. Swanson booted the extra point.

Knowing Andover had to pass late in the game, Rice defenders were all over Baer quarterback Ken Baer. He was sacked four times in the game, twice for 10 yards each time late in the fourth quarter.

"The big difference in the game was they put pressure on Ken (Baer) and we didn't put pressure on Jon English," said Andover coach Frank Buford.

Sean Degan had eight tackles, including two sacks for Rice. Jim Beauregard had seven tackles and one fumble recovery.

Jordan Kleber, Mark Drum and Joe Perrault paced Andover's defense with five tackles apiece.

Both Rice and Andover continue with their nonleague schedules this week. Andover entertains Berkley, 8 p.m., Friday. Berkley lost a 7-6 ball game to Troy in its opener.

Detroit Southwestern will visit Birmingham Groves field 8 p.m., Saturday for a crack at Brother Rice. Southwestern slipped past Detroit Denby 14-6 Friday.

Borgess stops Detroit Redford

Jeff DeBerry, a senior quarterback who is expected to fill the shoes of the graduated Steve Michuta, tossed three touchdown passes and threw for 117 yards to lead Redford Bishop Borgess to a 20-6 football victory last weekend over Detroit Redford.

DeBerry completed eight of 13 throwing attempts and the Spartans' defense limited Redford to only two first downs during the contest, one in each half.

Borgess stopped Redford after the opening kickoff, then moved the ball 30 yards in eight plays during its first offensive possession to take a 6-0 lead.

DeBerry completed a five-yard TD toss to John Stack, who was running an out pattern.

Dean Wiley kicked the extra point.

A poor Redford punt gave the Spartans excellent field position for that first drive, and a Redford enmeshment penalty on a fourth-and-four situation inside the 10-yard line revitalized the march when it was about to fizzle.

Henry Wilson brought Redford to within a point late in the first quarter when he plunged into the Spartans' endzone on a quarterback sneak from one yard out.

Redford needed three plays to score from there after intercepting a DeBerry pass and returning it 55 yards to the one.

Borgess scored its second touchdown at 8:45 of the second period when DeBerry connected with Bob Theisen with a 19 yard touchdown pass.

The play capped a seven-play, 55-yard drive. A 20-yard burst by Pat Uetz off tackle was a key play in the march. Wiley again converted to put the Spartans ahead 14-6.

Borgess received the second-half kickoff and advanced 85 yards in 12 plays. DeBerry capped the drive with a two-yard scoring pass to Dan Malone.

The PAT kick failed.

Uetz, again, ripped off a couple of big gains during that drive. He had off-tackle runs of 30 and 20 yards.

The Spartans totaled 30 yards on offense—102 rushing and 117 through the air. Uetz rushed for 58 yards and Malone scampered for 48.

RICE KEPT UP the pressure with a 67-yard scoring drive, which took up 12 plays. English passed 14 yards to Martinez for the touchdown. A fake kick failed to score the two points after touchdown.

Penalties hampered Andover's next offensive possession. The Barons were called for holding and clipping. On the game, Andover drew seven penalties for 85 yards. Rice was called four times for 40 yards.
