Manskes mark 50 years

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Manks were hosted by their daughter and son-in-law at a party celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

The couple were wed Sept. 8, 1928, and moved to Farmington after a long residency in Redford Township.

The anniversary party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mound, of Farmington Hills. Among the guests were the honored couple's grandchildren, Kent and Carol Lynn Mound.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND MANSKE

Anniversary celebrated

Greg and Marge Kennedy of Southfield were surprised by family and friends at a party marking their 40th wedding anniversary.

The couple, Southfield residents since 1947, repeated their marriage vows at the 5 p.m. mass at St. Beatrice Church, after which the party began in the parish hall.

The party was organized by their four children. The Kennedys are active in many church and community affairs.

Lenox's "Command Performance"

Fine china created by Lenox for kings, presidents, governors and ambassadors around the world is now on display at Jacobson's. An example is the plate shown, from a service commissioned by King Faisal of Saudi Arabia in 1947 at a cost of over $30,000. It is a magnificent design in maroon and 24K embossed gold set off by the royal monogram. Also featured in the exhibit will be displays outlining china and crystal manufacturing processes, plus Jacobson's own selection of Lenox china, crystal and giftware for your home. October 2 through October 7.
