

Abbey Homes is working on the second phase of a luxury condominium project called Wabeek Pines II. The development features detached ranch style situated on the golf course.

Golf course view highlight homes

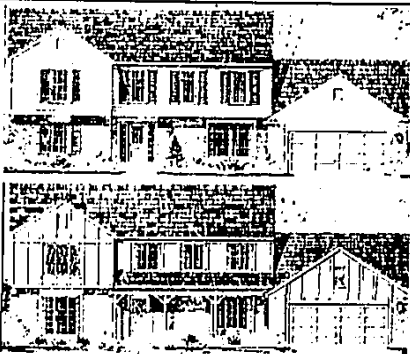

Abbey Homes of Michigan presents its Wabeek Pines II condominium development located in on the golf course in South Wabeek, in Bloomfield Hills south of Long Lake Road between Franklin and Middlebelt roads.

Each of the 32 units is a detached ranch style home with walk-out lower levels which can be finished at the option of the buyer. All buyers may be eligible for membership in the country club and step out their backdoors to play on the course designed by Jack Nicklaus.

The units are transitional—in between contemporary and traditional style—with warm brick colors and rough sawn wood trim with reverse board and batten to create a rustic appeal.

Each offers a large master bedroom with bath suite, dressing room, dual walk-in closets, cathedral and studio ceilings in the foyers, living rooms, dining rooms and libraries. All are equipped with fireplace, wet bar in the library and outdoor wood deck. Top of the line appliances and energy saving features are included in the base price ranging from $179,000 to $250,000. Frontage totals 2,300-3,000 square feet.

Sales are being handled by Maple Associates, Realtors and are available by calling 855-9100 or 642-6500.

The Hearthwood model in the Willowood subdivision offers classic country living style.
